NORTH MODESTO

Bulletin from Dec. 22, 2022 meeting

Presiding: Jennifer Mullen greeted everyone with her usual smile – and a tree on her head! It was the start of a festive gathering. Kyle Barker provided the music, and our caterers did a special breakfast with made-to-order omelets and a platter of scrumptious cinnamon rolls.

(See photos at the bottom.)

Song: Kyle and Gary Goodman

Prayer: Ken Darby

Guests: There were lots. Hopefully I got them all. Brian Sanders: wife Debbie and daughter Grace. Charlie C: Trish and Sabrina (back from Las Vegas for the holiday). Ken Darby: daughter; Steve Perry: wife, Ana Kanbara: husband Robert and daughter Maya; Abby and Harrison Power: Abby's dad Chris Murphy; Anna and Salina Little.

Jennifer kept to the Christmas theme and folks shared Christmas traditions, favorite Christmas foods. Judy was a crummy note taker so you won't get all the particulars.

ANNOUNCEMENTS – Richard Reimche is in the hospital and Jim Felt had to be in one night after some tests. (Card was sent on behalf of the club.)

Jeremiah Williams is a grandfather – again. Number 4 is Zoria Rose Williams, 6 pounds, 1 ounce. Three weeks early but healthy.

Lisa Lodi's father passed away this week.

INTERCLUB – Ken said the Los Banos interclub was not held this week; there will be a new date in January.

SOCIALS – Randy announced that a bowling social is next, in February. Date TBA. The chili cookoff will be in March (also date TBA); he'll be looking for six chefs.

BIRTHDAYS: Paul Echols. Bob Harper's birthday is coming up on Christmas.

WEDDING ANNIVERSARIES: Jim and Cindy Felt

Merry Christmas
Everybody.

Yes, we have one more meeting in 2022. See you at the museum
on Dec. 29!
