PROGRAM

Jason Poisson, executive director of Camp Jack Hazard presented a passionate snapshot of the work that has been going on for 99 years. The camp fosters personal growth through challenging and exhilarating wilderness experiences. It teaches youth to recognize and deal with the physical risks and challenges of rock climbing, camping and other mountain experiences. In 2009 a 503b was launched. The camp has received pledges totaling $1.4 million of their $5 million goal. Wildfires nearly destroyed the camp two years ago and the state has kicked in $350 thousand to repair the damage.

MARBLE DRAW Judy Herrero had the winning ticket but, sadly, the wrong marble.

LUNCH MONEY Lucky Karen Parson-Bettencourt won the loot.
