AMERICAN GRAFFITI PARADE AND CAR SHOW:

Brent and Charlie gave last minute information on the largest car show west of the Mississippi!

Charlie: This time tomorrow everything breaks loose. 3 pm close down. Then Smile and wave. You have your locations as parade workers.

Parade kicks off at 6.

Chief of police goes out first then dignitaries.

Begin the close up around 8:30

Lots of detail about streets and right turns and who counts as a photographer!

There is no 'start' of parade, it is a loop. there are entry points.

1000 cars in parade.

Remind people of where the entry money goes to.

Brent.

We have 1180 total cars plus Friday and Saturday sign ups and 350 cars and coffee.

We are doing this for the community. Here s another check for $1500 from Farmers agency group courtesy of Clint Dunbar.

Remember we are all Modesto ambassadors.

Modesto View and Stanislaus magazine and 209 and Chamber have articles.

Brent's brother is here to see the show for the first time. Brent is looking forward to spending time with him.

Bill Heyden has lined up some great entertainment....

Beach boys tribute band.

A movie music set.

Elvis a La Carte,

The River radio.

Don't forget the clean up on Sunday afternoon. Let's leave the campus as we found it.

Gary Goodman; Let's have fun.

PROGRAM:

No program this week as we were using the time for Graffiti Parade and Show details.

Reminders

Volunteer for the car show!!!
