Next week's program: Melissa Van Diepen will present the Stanislaus Community Foundation's efforts to improve the lives of the residents and the vibrancy of the unique and diverse communities throughout Stanislaus County.

Meeting Summary: Jenifer kept everyone's attention with more bells and whistles than a third-grade teacher at the last of school. A live NMK candid video ran, drawings, word games and lots of prizes. 🍌 It was old graffiti tee shirt day with Gary Goodman winning the grand prize for his 1999 shirt. Cory Warner took photos of the gang showing off their shirts.

President Jennifer Mullen.

Song: Gary Goodman

Pledge: George Bairey

Prayer: Larry Hughes

Guests:

Patty Hughes, happy to be here with a beaming Larry at her side.

Marie Bairey

Selena Little

Announcements:

Board Reported that $2,000 was sent to The Family House, CASA received $4,000 and the school supplies project got $3,000.

On August 17 NMK meets at the Great Valley Museum located at MJC West campus. If you arrive at the Graffiti Museum, it is hoped no one will be there.

Happy Bucks:

Bob Riedel was $100 happy for his retirement from Mortgage Banking.

Judy Herrero was delighted that Harrison and Abigail Power will be on the program selection team. She added that Kristina Hansen is no longer teaching and is “farm sitting” in the Netherlands contemplating her future.

Charlie Christensen shared the story of his uncle’s celebration of life at the National Cemetery in Dixon. His from Utah also attended but suffered a heart attack upon returning home. All is well, according to Charlie, as his brother got a valve job and things are working well.

Patty Hughes is very happy to be back after a stroke sidelined her. Everyone was very happy to see her smiling.

Susan Powers had a wonderful time fishing with her grandson. Masking Strides will hold their San Joaquin Valley kickoff at the Graffiti USA Classic Car Museum on August 9 at 7:30 am.

Brent Burnside was on the fishing trip mentioned above but got skunked, until he dropped a line in the water near the Strawberry store where he snagged at 14” rainbow.

Lori Rosman is anxiously awaiting the arrival of a new granddaughter.

Bill Heyden is the proud owner of a 1951 Jeepster.

Ana Kanbara gave a shout out to Ken Nolte for being a source of continuous support for Key Club.

Interclub: Ken Darby 81

Greater Merced is scheduled for August 14 at noon.

Birthdays:

Larry Hughes celebrated his 81st birthday. It wasn’t anything like his 21st where he played with airplanes in the Navy.
