BULLETIN

May 9, 2024

Today's Meeting Summary

It was great to see Britta Skavdahl and Steve Collins at the meeting.

President Ana Kanbara

Song: Gary Goodman

Pledge: Britta Skavdahl

Prayer: Tim Ragsdale

Guests:

Jesus Munoz brought guest Christian

Ana Little brought daughter (or was it the other way around) Salina Little

Announcements:

Lori Rosman urged the group to make sure their contact information is correct on the NMK member list.

Charlie Christensen said we need help with the parade. Please sign up and get neighbors, friends, and countrymen to help out. It's only a 3-4 hour commitment and you get to be up close and personal with the cars. There are 929 cars registered for the show and 800 for the parade, to date. This is our premier fund raiser, The Kiwanis Club of North Modesto cannot provide support to client organizations without it. ALL HANDS ON DECK!

Tony Pinheiro put in a plug for the Ripon Ducks Unlimited group Binggo for BoomSticks. Every round of bingo wins a firearm. June 4, 2024 at 5:30 PM at the Rustic Ranch in Manteca.

Karen Parson-Bettencourt donated a custom apron for the winner of the Pulled Pork Slider Contest this weekend. She cannot be at the event and wanted to make amends. 😊

Marty Villa was $20 happy for a new great grand baby.

NORTH MODESTO

Jesus Munoz announced a car show this Saturday at the Howard Training Center from 11-4. He added there are lots of cars, vendors, and food.

Nan Jacobs was grateful for being at Gregori High to award scholarships.

Bob Riedel cautious and reserved, as usual, alluded to some travel past and future. A careful review of social media disclosed some incriminating pictures of him on a yacht fantail somewhere in Mexico. He then mumbled something about major travel soon. Bob offered up $6 after some goading from President Ana.

Steve Collins was present today after a long absence. Steve joined Key Club at Downey High in 1954 and has been affiliated with Kiwanis ever since.

Larry Hughes was thankful for all the help he received in distributing the festival posters.

Interclub:

Ken Darby-The next interclub is Tracy on June 17

Birthday:

Tim Ragsdale celebrated his 81st birthday with family in San Diego. He is delighted that many throughout the world celebrate his Cinco-de-Mayo birthday. Tim thinks the NMK tradition that values younger birthdays with a higher fine than older ones isn't right. "Every year is a blessing at this age." $20.

Anniversary:

Judy Herrero's 47th anniversary occurred without a celebration while babysitting grand children in New York. A celebration will follow.

Member Anniversary:

Ana Little 2 years

Gary Goodman 38 years

Jim Felt 38 years

Social: Randy Cook

Pulled Pork Slider Contest Saturday May 11 5 PM at 5719 Chenault Drive

Bring a beverage, appetizer, desert, beverage of your choice and a friend.

Program:

George Gardner of MOBAND gave us the history and future of the band. George has been affiliated with the band for 60 years as musician, director, and board member. He's retiring but will play. Mancini Bowl was built in 1949 with volunteer materials and labor. We didn't have the permit stuff back then. The band needs about 100 musicians to show up each week. The roster is 250 strong. Not everyone can show up every week and play that week's music selection. The age of the musicians runs 13 to 90. The theme for the 2024 season is "Rock On!" starting June 8 with "Rockin' and Rollin'". The concerts are every Saturday night in June. Patriotic Fury will be the theme on June 29 and American Gems for the final concert on July 6.

Marble Draw:

John Sanders had the lucky ticket and drew the valuable marble. Richard Reimche presented the additional "table stakes" winnings to John. John proclaimed he didn't enter the table stakes. Richard insisted he did. It appears to have been one of those senior moments, but, for whom? No one can remember, for sure.

Lunch Money:

Steve Perry won the lunch money.
