Today's Meeting Summary

President Ana Kanbara

Song: Gary Goodman

Pledge: Ken Darby

Prayer: Larry Hughes

Guests:

Susan Wallbridge brought her daughter Loren to the meeting.

Announcements:

President Ana Kanbara reminded everyone that we should leave a few bucks in the tip jar each week for the people who get up early to cook us breakfast. The goal is $100 per week.

Loris Rosman is updating the club roster, so everyone is reachable for the car show. If you've missed an in-person checkup, please let Lori know if you've changed contact information.

Larry Hughes needs volunteers to place car show posters at businesses along McHenry Avenue.

Ray Sanders needs 48 volunteers to man the gates for the car show. Reach out to friends, neighbors and country women, and men, to help out.

NORTH MODESTO

Brent Burnside reported that 833 cars have been registered for the car show with 750 of them for the parade.

President Ana Kanbara mentioned board disbursements totaling $6,600 For Family Justice, Johansen band, various graduation ceremonies and some other good stuff.

Ray Sanders is happy his brother John is resting comfortably at home and not in a hospital in Sacramento. John tumbled down the escalator at Sacramento International Airport, the whole distance. He's doing well and luckily on suffered scrapes and bruises. No mention of damage to the escalator.

Interclub:

Ken Darby continues on a roll with some great interclub events. Next up is June 17 Tracy.

Birthday:

Bill Heyden celebrated his 69th birthday. Happy Birthday Bill.

Apron Reading:

Michael Jimenez-Tanda had a lengthy list of Kiwanians who hadn't signed his apron resulting in a mini fund raiser.

Social: Randy Cook

The first annual Pulled Pork Slider contest will take place on May 11 at Randy and Denise Cook's cave. Bring an appetizer, bottle of your favorite beverage and don't forget friends and neighbors.

Marble Draw: Lori Rosman had the winning ticket but pulled the losing marble.

Lunch Money: Ken Darby won the cash, about enough to buy a gallon of gas.
