Program

The rest of the meeting was given over to discussions of the car show preparations and logistics.

CAR SHOW

Saturday and Sunday June 8th and 9th.

Brent Burnside.

We have a show. Everything is looking good. We need everyone on board next weekend.

Suzi Powers, non food vendors. Vendor check in is Thursday 8am to 2pm.

Judy Herrero, registration, handled all the many vendor calls.

Judy also has stats on the car show:

2019. 1176 pre-registration, and 300 on Friday afternoon

2023, 1200 pre-registration and 60 at day of registration.

2024, 1266 pre-registration, and her statistically minded husband's projection of 93 at day of registration. Total 1350 cars. The parade was full in early May.

All from word of mouth and one paid ad.

There are 43 on the waiting list for the parade.

The forecast is for 90 degree temperatures. Not cool but not bad.

Cars and coffee will have an additional 200 cars on Sunday. Thanks Joseph and Aaron.

Ray Sanders, volunteer coordinator, Still needs some gate volunteers and shuttle cart drivers.

He notes that plenty of water will be needed if temperatures are climbing.

Call Ray at 209 604 7841 to volunteer friends , family and casual acquaintances.

Sponsor dollars are at $44,000. Double last year.

Brent says he is feeling a great responsibility with the big numbers and expectations this year.

PARADE

Friday June 7th, 6:30 pm to 8:30 pm.

Charlie Christensen

Happy to have volunteers from Clampers.

Dignitaries are local politicians and Kiki Rodriguez from the Impala Club.

There is a flyover to start the parade. T6 planes. Thanks Allan Ramsay.

The volunteer's main task is to stand on corners and watch and wave. 4pm to nine. Barricades need to stay closed until the trash pickup is done about 9pm.

The 2 hr parade will be 6:30 to 8:30. Staging cars from 5pm onward or so. Road closures start at 3pm. Orangeburg stays open till about 5 to 5:15.

Cars can still get on the parade route till about 6:40 when the parade 'snake' gets fully moving and the head of the parade has done the turnaround at McHenry and is back to Granger.

Parade decals should be in the top right of windshields. It is an extra $20 registration for the parade and to get the decal.

Cars should be 1980 and older.

Car show registration and packet pickup is at Caldwell and college, in the Ag building.

Thanks to Harrison for taking over the organization of dignitaries at the front of the parade from John Sanders.

After all the nitty gritty details Brian Sanders added that this is a great event, a big fundraiser, a boost to the community and a family outing. Come and volunteer and enjoy and be part of the fun.

Marble Draw: Gary Wasmund had the winning ticket but pulled a white marble.

Lunch Money: Selena Little won the cash, about enough for a good cup of coffee.
