NORTH MODESTO

Thanks to Steve Perry for getting Storer transportation to do shuttle from parking lots. We also still have two 8 person golf cart shuttles that will be running.

Thanks to Karen Bettencourt for getting all the apparel done.

Thanks to Judy Herrero for fielding all the entrants calls.

Judy Herrero updated the numbers..

Latest number is 1272 cars registered.

Parade is at 1000 plus.

There will be signage at gates to explain Kiwanis role in the community.

Registration starts at 1pm Friday afternoon.

Lori Rosman has emailed a phone contact list to everyone. Use it as needed for communication.

Suzi Powers, we will have Medics Plus available. Based near the information booth.

Volunteers should arrive 15 to 20 minutes before your time and check in at the information booth.

Member badges will be at information so you can pick them up when you check in to information with Ray Sanders or Christina Hansen.

Members who get there early can park on West Campus in a parking area accessible by the second exit off Blu Gum. Look for 'Vendor' Sign.

Handicapped parking is in the parking lot near solar panels just off Blue Gum.

Cars and coffee will have an additional 200 cars on Sunday. Thanks Joseph and Aaron.

On Sunday, Big Al from Goodday Sacramento will be out here.

Our usual photographer Cory Warner will not be able to roam this year so we will need photos from club members. Try to take car pictures. Nice shots with kids need parent's permission which is tough to get so please concentrate on the cars. Selected good pictures to Judy Herrero after the show please.

Don't forget trash pickup on Sunday afternoon so we leave the campus in great shape.

Post event celebration. American Graffiti celebration and thank you at the Reed Car Museum on Wednesday July 24th. 5:30 till we are done.

Parade

Charlie Christensen

We are in good shape for manning the parade. Junior Navy Seals, Car Max, Clampers, Michael Baldwin Group, Ski Club, Kiwanians.

Flyover is a go. Three T6 warplanes scheduled to do a flyover.

Road closures, 3pm onward. Orangburg stays open till about 5 to 5:15.

Car staging begins at 3:30.

Cars will have a windshield sticker.

The 2 hr parade will be 6:30 to 8:30. Staging cars from 5pm onward.

The main entrance to the parade is through West Orangburg onto McHenry and then down McHenry to stage downtown.

The volunteer's main task is to stand on corners and watch and wave. 4pm to nine. Barricades need to stay closed until the trash pickup is done about 9pm.

It will be warm. Water will be brought around by street marshals on golf carts. Also, yellow safety jackets will be available.

If you see overheating cars, water coming from below, let the drivers know.

After 8pm, as it gets dark, remind drivers to turn on headlights if needed.

Some business people may need access to their business. Let them get there.
