Pledge: Bob Reidel

Meeting started a little late due to some technical difficulties.

GUESTS:

Selena Little is here

Julie - former Beyer HS Key Clubber

ANNOUNCEMENTS:

Jennifer - Breakfast with Santa is Saturday, December 7. Please sell your tickets, if you want to donate them back to the club please get them back to Lori/Jennifer as soon as possible so we can distribute them to the schools. We need all you egg crackers, sausage cookers, and pancake flippers! Doors open at 8AM, but we start cooking at 6AM.

Marty - Gary G loves doing the Christmas Baskets because he gets to bring his grandkids and see the joy on all the kids' faces when they deliver the food and gifts. His grandkids didn't know that there were kids that went without and it's truly an eye-opener for them. Chelsea, newest member, got to go one time with her son and they had a fantastic time. We need people who have big vehicles to deliver everything quickly. We will meet at Don Monaco's hangar (833 Airport Way) at the airport in Modesto on Saturday, December 14 at 8:30AM. Gift wrapping will be Wednesday before on December 11 at the Man Cave starting at 6PM.

Jewel - grew up in poverty and didn't have much and usually not much of a Christmas, but parents provided the best they could. Her first memorable Christmas when she was 3 years old was when a local church group brought gifts to her family home. The duck photo that she chose as her gift still sits in her hutch to this day to remind her of a time when someone cared.

Ken D - first year of doing the Christmas Baskets, went with Gary G.

NORTH MODESTO

Steve - his son's 21st birthday, his baby, and things are a little fuzzy this morning. MoBand Crab Feed coming up soon.

Judy - happy, not only welcoming Jewel's face back, but also her voice. Only had to endure 30 minutes at the DMV, pretty fast in comparison to previous visits. Word of advice - take your test online instead of in person, way easier.

Marty - frustration buck, glad that ErnieRuth isn't listening in. She did some practice questions online multiple times to take the test, but couldn't find an appointment in Modesto. Found out one in Manteca and drove there for the test. She was told that she actually already took the test online and passed, and didn't have to drive all the way to Manteca...

Adrian - his son just became a firefighter

Bob - Last week, his Elks club traveled to Paso Robles. COVID somehow snuck into the group. Some people went on to Oceano near Pismo where it was very windy and cold.

Doug - joined Bob and others on the same trip

Gary G - also joined Bob and Doug on this trip but didn't go to Pismo so they missed all the cold, wind, and rain

Jennifer - Kyle Barker is also selling tickets to Breakfast with Santa at his store, Barker's Music. As she was delivering tickets, a family came in and actually bought tickets.

Ken - happy 5 because Key Club just had their DCM last night at the Graffiti Museum. He got there and talked to Carly finding out that they just hosted over 3000 8th graders for the day. He was also honored with the Kiwanis Advisor of the Month
