Announcements

On July 24th our regular meeting will be at the Howard Prep Center where they will cater us. 7am.

Lori and Charlie reported on the Kiwanis International convention that they attended in Pittsburg. They had nice new Kiwanis shirts.

Keynote speaker was the legendary QB for the Pittsburg Steelers in 1970, Terry Bradshaw. He was good.

AT the signature breakfast, the top ten club projects 10 finalists were announced. American Graffiti won a Finalist Trophy.

Lori added that a soap box derby looked like a lot of fun and could possibly be incorporated into the car show. It 'Involves cars of a sort and kids'. Not to be confused with 'Pinewood Derby'.

Brian Sanders said that MJC has a float which was made for the 4th July parade a couple of years ago and has been a great investment and has been used in lots of parades. It will be in tomorrow's Fourth of July parade.

4th July parade. President Lauri is a judge, Larry Hughes is involved. Our other Kiwanis club club puts it on, lets support it.

Larry is involved as the oldest living fire chief on earth and is part of the 150th anniversary of the Modesto fire dept.

Pat Glatky added. With all the talk of the Fourth of July Parade we need to recognize and thank Jeremiah being the chair of the 4th of July committee. If you want a job done, give it to a busy person.

Andrew Cabrera, There will be a small car show behind Nations from 5pm to 9pm. (ed: I don't remember the day though!)

Happy and Sad Bucks

Randy Cook: New grandson, Raffi Charles.

Dirk Paintedman, Happy to be here at the meeting. Several more weeks of radiation therapy to go.

Susan Powers , Happy $5 , trip to Coos Bay with family. A nice respite.

Pete Vella, Trip to Washington DC to see grandsons graduation from High School. Also Pennsylvania. It was hot.

Pat Glatky, happy for free T-shirt's.

Loren Suezle, playing golf again after improvements in his back.

Gary Goodman, Raised a point of order that President Lauri had no badge. The motion died before anyone paid.

Lauri Maki, Trip to Ashland Oregon. She saw Shakespeare, Oscar Wilde and had a wine visit. Maybe this math professor does enjoy culture.

Charlie Christensen. Return from Pittsburg to SFO entailed a very early wake up. He then attended Bob Dunbar's celebration so it was a long day.

Andrew Cabrera, Saw the F1 movie premiere.

Lori Rosman, watching a softball game during the meeting!!

Adrian Crane. Good to see Jackie Zimmerman at Bob Dunbars celebration. Gary still couldn't make it.

Susan , Happy to be here at the meeting on time. She got a string of green lights on the journey down.

Program:

No program as this we had the Board Meeting Report. Since we had a rather short Board Meeting report, though, Lauri led us in a game:

Match the person in the club to the phrase.....

Most likely to say yes. Dirk

Most likely to know the mission. Lori

Most likely to MC. Charlie

Most likely to sing. Gary

Most likely to decorate. Karen Bettencourt

Most likely to know birthdays. Laurie

Most likely to make us all laugh. Everyone

Most likely to bring homemade muffins. Lori

Most likely to be next president. Brian Sanders.

Marble Draw: Ken Darby.

Coffee Money: Charlie Christensen

Thought of the Day: Susan Powers.

“Gratitude, the more you express gratitude for what you have the more likely you will have more to be grateful for”.
