Apron Signing

After dutifully wearing his apron for several meetings, this was the day that Andrew Cabrera got to check his list to see if anyone had not introduced themselves and signed the apron.

Curtis Martin paid $5 for no sign
Cory Warner paid $5 for no sign $5
Rich Humble paid $5 for no sign $5
Abby Power paid $5 for no sign, paid by Harrison in Abby's absence.

Happy/ Sad Bucks

Bob Reidel. Oregon, Washington, Idaho, RV trip. A 6 week tour. Decided not to add South Dakota. Platinum card.

John Murray. Has a new grandkid. A baby girl

Gary Goodman. Gary's mother was transferred from Casa de Modesto to hospital. She did OK and is back at Casa De Modesto. She is 99 and just 3 months shy of her 100th birthday. Best wishes and many more birthdays.

Nan Jacobs. Happy for her new knee. 6 weeks post op and able to get around now, but not drive..

Susan Walbridge. Youngest daughter is expecting. Due sept 7th. Happy buck.

Larry Hughes. Tested new hiking sticks and tripped, ending up in the gutter. A bit more work and he will be out walking.

Curtis Martin. Sad because he missed NMK meetings over the summer. His youngest son graduated from high school and is heading to MJC for politics. He was on a trip to Japan where he was impressed and amazed by Tokyo and Kyoto. Also a trip to Toronto for family.

Selena Little. Happy and annoyance bucks. Happy she has started back at college. Annoyed that she was not here last week, car issues, a screw in a tire, a quick trip to Americas Tire, bad tire sensors.....so it goes on!

Ana Little, had a trip to South Carolina, Hilton Head. This was a work trip. Work trip for a self admitted retired person?

Ken Nolte. Attended last night Key Club division meeting, was awarded outstanding Kiwanis Advisor award.

Laurie Maki, looking forward to a Giants vs Cubs game with Steve.

Program.

No program today.

Laurie's Race to the Finish Game. Ken Nolte was the day's winner, and got cash.
Grand prize is still to come.

Meeting adjourned: 7:58am
