Program

Captain Christopher Kim of the Salvation Army Red shield.

The organization functions as a community center. Unfortunately it looks like a jail!

There is a great sfter school program from 3:15. to 4:15 but they only really close it at 6:30. There are a lot of, what used to be known as latchkey kids, out there.

Their program 'Troops' is like boys and girl scouts. Character building program which includes God since the Salvation Army is a religious organization.

Baseball and softball. Need sponsors. Kids cost is $80 . They play in a league and would like an alternate uniform, in case they play a team with similar color.

Need snack bar workers.

Red Shield Community Center web site now has a comments section.

Red Shield center is also a Church and Kim is the senior pastor. Service at 11am.

Kim was ordained in 2007 and went to Tucson first where he became a Kiwanian. Then to Bellevue, Washington as a Kiwanian.

Then came to Modesto where he is with Rotary.

Travel Bribe Auction.

Doug Tripp returned from the British Virgin Islands and to mitigate his fines he presented the club with a bottle of rum and recipe and ingredients for the signature breakfast cocktail from the bar that they frequented on the beach.

It was auctioned off with Karen Bettencourt taking it for $60. Thanks Karen.

Ticket Draw.

Marble Draw. Pete Vella. Drew a white, sorry.
