Changing to a Virtual Meeting

Hello to all my fellow Kiwanians,

During the last board meeting we discussed and then decided to go remotely for the next 4 meetings, which include the next 3 Wednesdays in January and the first Wednesday in February. At our next February Board meeting, we will reevaluate and then decide what action we will take from then on.

We will continue at 7:00 AM. Also, for those who did not attend the meeting this morning and would like to gather more information on our Top Golf event, there will be a signup sheet for two different times and places. Craig will host one meeting and I will host the other one.

Stay healthy and warm!

Mary

Marshall Fire

The Rocky Mountain District Foundation is collecting money as a relief fund for the victims of fire.

There are other good places to donate also, but our Kiwanis Foundation will spend the money well.

The board voted to donate $1000 to the RMDKiwanisFoundationFireFund. The happy buck from last week are also going to the fund, $186.00 were collected.

Maggie update

Maggie is doing awesome. The doctors said she had a "complicated migraine." She is back home at her apartment. Gaby is staying all week to help out, etc.

Maggie will be having physical therapists come to her this week, beginning asap.

Junior Achievement Finance Park

We have an opportunity as a club to help facilitate Junior Achievement's Finance Park on February 4, 2022. These students participating in this event will have had some classroom instruction in such areas of family budgeting, career choices, etc. The culmination of this in-class instruction will be a daylong event allowing these students to put into practice what they have learned. Classroom instruction is great; but the application of this instruction is crucial. J/A will provide us with a volunteer guide and training of our roles and responsibilities. We will need 12 volunteers for this fun and rewarding event. Please see the signup sheet.

Sheridan Food Bank (2022-01-08)

On this cold, cold day we served only 54 families. God bless our dedicated volunteers!

I have managed to snag some really good "freebies" at FBR this week, including large quantities of fruit cups, pasta sauce, beef stew and peanut butter. As a result, the only items we might possibly need next week are jelly plastic bags

No report on how many Kiwanians we had helping. We could use a report for the newsletter.

SLP Groups

Columbine Kiwanis supports 5 Key Clubs and 1 Builders Club. See list below. A big thank you to the youth groups leaders. If you would like to work with our youth, contact one of the youth leaders or President Mary. We can use help.

Littleton High School (Brian and Denny)
Heritage High School (Jim Foley, Dave Devanney)
Dakota Ridge High School (Rod Hunley)
Columbine High School (Karen Hunley)
Chatfield High School (Rod Hunley)
Ken Caryl Middle School (Ken, Darla)

Arapahoe Philharmonic

We close the year with another big thanks to the Columbine Kiwanis. The 'Holidays at the Movies' concert was enjoyed by a growing audience as we come continue to #BacktotheStage. Thank you for your commitment and support throughout the year.

Wishing you and yours Happy Holidays and a wonderful New Year.

Ken Caryl Builders Club

:at Thursday we had a Builders Club Meeting at the Ken Caryl Middle School, the project for the day was to make a tie blanket to donate to the fire disaster. A lot of fun working with tis kids, young people.

KAD January 11

Our next Kiwanis Club of Columbine social event is planned for this Tuesday, January 11 starting at 5pm - Kiwanis After Dark. As usual, it will start at 5pm at Old Chicago at 3550 S Wadsworth Blvd. Kiwanis members, family, friends, neighbors and guests are all welcome. Hope to see you there. Get to know your fellow Kianians better, or introduce a friend to our club. We will be following local Health Department guidelines as required for Old Chicago. If Covid conditions mandate a change in meeting parameters, we will send an email to all members.

Top Golf

Craig Brown had an update meeting on Top Golf Sunday at his house. Ten of us attended, we got a lot of good information plus great snacks.

There was a lot of enthusiasm. If you missed it Mary is having another session at her house on Tuesday Jan 18 at 8:00. If you are interested taol to Mary or better sign up on line.

Ballad of the Bell Ringers

Anonymous from one of our volunteer bell ringers.

By the ghost of Clement Clarke Moore

In the month of December
You can pick up a bell
And encounter the Santas
Who visit the mall

Put on a red apron
A bright smile, of course
Say "Thanks, Merry Christmas"
Till your voice is hoarse

Bundle up if it's cold
Wear warm socks and gloves
Watch that Red Kettle
Collect gifts of love

Those pesky face masks
Can't hide the warm smiles
Of generous shoppers
Dressed in holiday style

These Santas give portraits
Of Washington, Lincoln,
Hamilton, Jackson, or Grant,
Sometimes even Franklin

Kids drop in their pennies,
Learn giving's a joy
Their coins will buy some child
A new Christmas toy

You'll earn Christmas cheer
You'll have fun greeting friends
As you call out your "Thank You's"
You'll hear "Thanks" back again

You'll know that Santa
Has paid you a call
'Cause the gifts in the Kettle
Bring good cheer to all
