Key Club News:

AHS Key Club member and Lt. Governor for Division 5/18 Hiral Patel hosted a fantastic Spring Rally at the Center Kiwanis Club Building in Center. The Rally was attended by Key Club members from Alamosa, Moffat, and Center—absent were members from Monte Vista and Durango high schools. Ty Coleman, Alamosa Kiwanis Member and Alamosa Mayor was their guest speaker.

This weekend- March 25-27 12 students from Alamosa High School Key Club plus their 2 advisors will attend the Rocky Mountain District Key Club Convention in Lakewood, CO. The students are very excited to be able to meet again after being virtual the past 2 years. The Key Club says THANKS the Alamosa Kiwanis Club for covering 1/3 of their cost to attend convention. The Key club fundraised for 1/3 and the student is paying 1/3.

Service Leadership Program Panel

This session will provide a brief review of the 2021/22 season where each SLP's batting average improved, as did club wins. Each manager from Key Club, CKI, and Key Leader will briefly talk about their results, followed by a panel discussion on plans, challenges, opportunities and how you and your club can get in the game. You will hear from team Manager James Martin, Grounds Keeper Chris Scurto and hitting clean up, retiring manager Ann Stelling. Don't miss this opportunity to thank Ann for her commitment to Team Key Club.
