3/6 Recap

A great opportunity to share your love for Kiwanis

Easter Egg Hunt
March 30th from 11am-2pm
at Memorial Park.

Guest Speaker
James Divine

What a powerful presentation. I encourage you to visit his website: www.jamesdivine.net

Here's an excerpt from his website:

I use humor, music, personal stories and my 104 year old saxophone in a motivational speech to share that - although we may be bruised, dented, scratched - a beautiful symphony can still pour out of our lives. I went through a lot as a kid...

- Abusive dad
- Poverty
- Homelessness
- Molested

Despite this past history, it did not prevent me from becoming a successful adult...

- Married 37 years
- Raised 4 kids
- 10 Grandkids (and counting)
- Successful Army and teaching career

I love sharing my journey with people so they know that their Now doesn't determine their Future.

We will be setting up an information/membership drive booth and selling
ATV raffle tickets.

Some bunnies would love to hear you share your stories about Kiwanis.

Needed: High School Seniors

Scholarship Application
Deadline is March 31st.

Get ready for March bingo!!

March 21st at 6:30pm

We're getting more and more newbies out there because of the awesome Kiwanians spreading the news.

Food Truck: Peak Crepes

The Monument Kiwanis is once again putting on it's ever popular

Stars of Tomorrow Talent Show on March 17th from 2-5pm at Palmer Ridge School.

The party of the decade is coming up!

Pat Hyslop and our Builders Club will be presenting on Wednesday, March 20th

As part of their service project they will be asking for donations of new toys or $$ for CASA to share with kids in the court system.

Please keep this in mind when you head to the store this week. Grab a fun toy that can become a little distraction during a stressful moment.

Always an amazing show.
Don't miss it!
