EDUCATOR & CITIZEN OF THE YEAR!

The Daily Sentinel: <https://bit.ly/3zlU7aB>

The Business Times: <https://bit.ly/45NmSsY>

Breanne Garcia is a Special Education Specialist for School District 51 where she is an integral part of ensuring students with disabilities have a meaningful education. Bree has worked in special education for over 15 years and has worked in elementary schools as a moderate need's teacher, helping students that need specialized instruction in math, reading, and social emotional learning. Hundreds of students have benefited from her expertise and have grown socially and academically due to her commitment. Lastly, Bree ensures new special education teachers receive the support they need to ensure special needs students thrive.

As Music Director of the Grand Junction Symphony, Dr. Charles Latshaw commitment to expose children to orchestral and symphonic music, specifically 3rd-5th graders throughout School District 51, made him an easy choice. Dr. Latshaw created the Grand Junction Symphony Academy, which allows children to receive one on one lessons who otherwise could not afford to do so. His commitment to the development and improvement of the Arts in the Grand Valley to our youth aligns with our commitment to improving our community one child at a time.
