PROPOSED DUES CHANGES

Dues decreased a few years ago by $40. We are operating partially from reserves.

Responsibilities of the Kiwanis Club of Grand Junction

1. Volunteer Support:

- Provide volunteers to help with selling beer tickets, checking IDs, and putting on wristbands for patrons on Friday September 27 and Saturday, September 28.

2. Set Up and Signage:

- Assist in putting up fencing, banners and the required event signage for both beer garden areas, including notices that no alcohol shall be brought past designated points, ID check requirements, and other state-required signage for the liquor license.

3. Committee Meeting Participation

- If possible, have a member of Kiwanis attend the monthly committee meetings to stay in contact about beer garden plans.

Financial Agreement

The Chamber and Kiwanis agree to be partners in operating the Fruita Fall Festival beer garden.

Net proceeds from the beer garden, after covering all expenses (including beer, cups, liquor license, additional security, fencing, etc.), will be split 60/40 between the Chamber and the Kiwanis, with the Chamber receiving 60% and Kiwanis receiving 40%.

We literally just show up and make money!
The Chamber will do all the hard work for us!
We NEED volunteers! Let Stacey know if you can work on Friday 5-10pm and/or Saturday 11a-10p.
Lots of Live Music to enjoy!
