Mark Holmer Lay Person Service Award Criteria

To recognize a Kiwanian who exemplifies the meaning of the first two Objects of Kiwanis International in their daily life.

1. The first two Objects of Kiwanis International are:
  - a. To give primacy to the human and spiritual, rather than the material values of life.
  - b. To encourage the daily living of the Golden Rule in all human relationships.
2. Clergy are ineligible for this award.
3. The Nebraska-Iowa District administrator must receive the completed nomination form and any additional attachments by July 1. The award is to be presented at the Fall District Convention.
4. Each club in the District is asked to select one person. That person shall receive a certificate at a club meeting recognizing his or her selection. Once the District Awards Committee announces the recipient, a certificate will be mailed to the club contact person for presentation to the recipient.
5. One person from each Division shall be selected to be recognized as the Divisional Mark Holmer Lay Person Service Award. That person will be recognized and receive a certificate at the District Convention.
6. One of the Division winners shall be selected as the Nebraska-Iowa District Mark Holmer Lay Person Service Award winner and will be recognized at the district convention.
