LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR

You were selected as lieutenant governor because you exemplify service and leadership. In this role, you serve as the vital connection between clubs and the district, helping shape the future of Kiwanis through collaboration, communication and inspiration.

RESPONSIBILITIES

As a lieutenant governor, your role is rooted in mentorship, advocacy, encouragement, connection and leadership. You serve as a mentor to club leaders, offering guidance through coaching conversations. As an advocate, you champion the needs and goals of clubs within your division, ensuring they have access to the resources and support they need. You act as a cheerleader, you celebrate achievements, recognize impact and motivate clubs to stay focused on their mission. In your role as a liaison, you bridge communication between Kiwanis International, your district and local clubs — sharing important updates, hosting divisional events and fostering collaboration. In some districts, lieutenant governors also serve as board members, contributing to district-level decisions that shape the future of Kiwanis service and leadership.

SKILLS

- Effective communication
- Resourcefulness
- Relationship building
- Organization

DELEGATES

- Event planning tasks. Assigning logistics, promotion or hosting duties to club leaders or committees.
- Resource sharing. Delegating the distribution of tools, templates and updates from Kiwanis International.
- Recognition efforts. Empowering others to help identify and celebrate club and member achievements.
- Transition preparation. Involving current and incoming leaders in planning for smooth leadership handovers.

DUTIES

- Coach and mentor club officers to support their growth and success.
- Organize Club Leadership Education (CLE) training sessions.
- Support leadership transitions by sharing knowledge and resources with incoming leaders.
- Nurture clubs by assisting them with growth and member retention, starting with aiding the club in completing a club membership plan.
- Guide the development of new clubs within the division.
- Facilitate communication among Kiwanis International, the district and clubs.
- Engage with clubs regularly, both in person and virtually, to build relationships and stay informed.
- Represent club interests at the district level and ensure access to needed resources.
- Recognize club achievements and celebrate their community impact.
- Ensure a seamless transition among preceding, current and succeeding lieutenant governors.
