Meet the Kiwanian:

Rick Martinek

Rick was born in Neenah, Wisconsin but grew up in Appleton, Wisconsin. He went to Northwestern University – played some football and was Captain of the Golf Team in his senior year. Over the years he has lived in Los Angeles, California, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, down in Southern Florida and Dallas Texas before moving to Hot Springs Village. His career was in the Hard Surface Flooring business – first with Armstrong and then 37 years with the Adelta Company. Rick says he does a bit of wood-working, plays some golf and (we didn't know this!) he loves HO model trains. He now lives on Nina Drive and so with tongue firmly planted in cheek he says he came “in” at Neenah and will go “out” on Nina! Rick joined Kiwanis because he wanted to be involved with the Mentoring Program and remembered Kiwanis giving scholarships at his high school. “I wanted to be a part of that.”

Board meeting: Sept 8th at 9:00 in Fellowship Hall.

Sept. Assignments: Donuts-Frank Mantell; Jackson House-Charley Derryberry & Mark Smith

2021- 2022 Officers: David Olson- President,

Kathleen Kinney-Secretary

Treasurer- Rick Martinek

Assistant Treasurer- Jerry Nolte
