

Kiwanians get social

There is a new — literal “fun” — way to participate in the Columbia Kiwanis Club.

With the approval of the club board, our last “meeting” of the month will be a gavel-free social event in the evening. The first of these socials was Nov. 29 at Broadway Brewery. The next will be Dec. 27 at the Heidelberg. The social gatherings not only provide a different atmosphere but allow members who cannot make noon meetings to participate.

Ringling for Salvation Army

The Columbia Kiwanis Club took its annual turn Dec. 2 ringing the bells and filling the pot with donations for the Salvation Army. Club members stood shifts all day long outside the Conley Road HyVee Store.

A special surprise this year was when Mark Slavik of KRCG TV showed up and filmed Jim Bowman and Clyde Bentley taking their turns with the bells.

K-Kids and Kiwanians welcome Santa to town

Members of the Columbia Kiwanis and the Benton Elementary K-Kids Club started the season in style by marching in the Salvation Army Holiday Parade.

The Nov. 27 parade escorted Santa Claus through downtown Columbia. Representatives of civic groups marched or road floats while several hundred people lined the sidewalks.

The K-Kids and advisor Cathy Cox handed out candy the children along the route.

K-Kids is the largest service organization for elementary school students, with more than 1,200 clubs worldwide. Our club sponsors the Benton K-Kids and is trying to organize one at Derby Ridge.
