WOW! What a year it has been. We are finally together at last, but a little smaller than normal. I welcome all the attendees in person and those that might been attending virtually. We intend to make this an event you will remember.

Although we have cancelled the District Convention as we know it and are calling it an Education and Leadership Conference, the Host Committee led by Joyce Montgomery and Jackie Bledsoe, have put together some fun events. Please enjoy what Roanoke has to offer.

On Saturday, the Program Committee under the leadership of Governor-Elect Elana Gardner and Leadership & Education Chairperson Krista Latchaw, have guaranteed you will leave with more knowledge than you arrived with. The workshops are over the top.

Saturday evening we will recognize our Service Leadership Program leaders and honor our Teenager of the Year at the Governor's Banquet. This will be an event you will not want to miss.

Finally, on Sunday, we will recognize the outgoing officers and install the incoming officers. Be sure to attend to see your future leaders.

Thank you for attending. Enjoy the weekend. Remember, Kids Need Kiwanis and SPREAD THE WORD!

Dennis Baugh
Governor, 2020-2021

Welcome to the Capital District Conference!

On behalf of your Kiwanis International Board, I hope you enjoy the experience of networking with Kiwanis members and leadership from the Capital District, learn some new ideas from the educational workshops to enhance our service, and empower our clubs. Take part and step up with leadership to help shape the future of our great organization, as we emerge from the COVID pandemic with new methods and ideas to serve the children in our communities and around the world. Kids need Kiwanis!

Children need a nurturing and positive environment and education to succeed in life. Kiwanis clubs are adapting their service to address these needs of the children from this pandemic. I believe in our clubs' abilities to meet these needs through service. Membership expansion will help our clubs in this effort. Thank you for all you do to create opportunities for children. Let this gathering open your minds to new ideas to lift your communities. When we join together, there are no limits to what we can achieve!

Yours in Kiwanis service,

Fellow Kiwanians and Friends,

Welcome to all of you who have joined us in-person in Roanoke this weekend for the Capital District's Education and Leadership Conference. We also welcome a large contingent of Kiwanians who are joining us online. And we're especially thankful for the technology and the skilled technicians who have made it possible to offer you options regarding participation.

Circumstances have made the task of putting on an annual event combining education, inspiration, entertainment, and Kiwanis business more challenging than usual this summer – but in true Kiwanis spirit, we have prevailed.

Capital District Kiwanis Governor Dennis Baugh has been a pleasure to work with. His "can-do" spirit inspires us all. We thank him for responding to all of our emails and phone calls throughout the past year, consistently offering support and exhibiting good humor. District Secretary-Treasurer Jeffrey Wolff is a gem as well, handling a myriad of details; it's gratifying and reassuring to work with such professionals.

JOYCE MONTGOMERY

JACKIE BLEDSOE

We're delighted to be meeting at the Hotel Roanoke and Conference Center, a showpiece of Southwest Virginia. The Hotel has hosted Capital District Kiwanis conventions numerous times over the past century and we're so glad to be here once again. As your time allows, please enjoy the hotel's wonderful amenities.

Our ELC committee began meeting more than one year ago. We are appreciative of all those committee members who met dozens of times to discuss potential programs and social options that were both feasible and appealing. The end result certainly speaks for itself. Thank you, committee members!

Our keynote speakers are exceptional – as you will see at our meal events Saturday and Sunday. Their backgrounds and credentials can be found throughout this book.

Thanks to Governor-Elect Elana Gardner and Education Committee Chairperson Krista Latchaw who have put together an outstanding lineup of educational workshops.

Our ancillary events outside the hotel – including Friday's service project of spreading mulch at the Kiwanis Club of Roanoke's Centennial Playground, Saturday's "Market Passport" excursion to visit downtown Roanoke merchants and compete for a prize, and Saturday's tour of the nearby Coca-Cola plant – all required extensive planning. We hope you or other members of your party are able to participate in those activities.

The details of this weekend's conference are explained on other pages in this program. We hope you will take time to read about them – and while perusing the book, we hope you will notice the advertisements throughout. We would be remiss if we didn't salute the outstanding efforts of our conference advertising team – resulting in nearly 30 advertisements.

We have overcome many challenges of the past year to bring this event to our members. What we have for you this weekend are informative forums, great speakers and three days of fun, reuniting with old friends and making new ones! Enjoy the conference and remember to "Spread the Word!" Thanks very much for your participation.

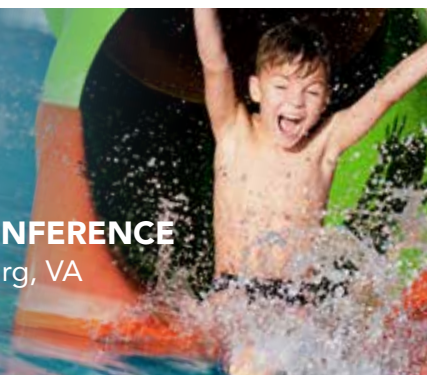

Yours in Kiwanis Service & Friendship,

Joyce Montgomery & Jackie Bledsoe

FAST FACTS

FRIDAY SERVICE PROJECT

If your schedule permits, please join us anytime between noon and 2 p.m. Friday at the Kiwanis Club of Roanoke's Centennial Playground for a mulching activity. (Dress appropriately; tools and mulch will be supplied.) This project was a Top 10 Finalist in Kiwanis International's recent Signature Project contest; the results were announced in Salt Lake City in June. The playground is located adjacent to the Melrose Branch Library, 2502 Melrose Avenue, approximately 2.8 miles west of Hotel Roanoke. The library's facilities will be available as needed.

AND SPEAKING OF THE LIBRARY...

All conference attendees are encouraged to bring a new children's book to donate to support Star City Reads, Roanoke's campaign for Grade-Level Reading initiative, which is working to ensure that all Roanoke children learn to read proficiently by third grade. The book can be dropped off at the registration desk when you check in.

EDUCATIONAL WORKSHOPS

Thanks to the advance planning by Governor-Elect Elana Gardner and Division 4 Lt. Governor and Educational Committee Chairperson Krista Latchaw, we are offering conference attendees a number of inter-related workshops ("Kiwanis is a Verb," "Kiwanis is a Noun," "Kiwanis is an Adjective," etc.). Specific details can be found on pages 38-44.

INFORMATION DESK

Have a question during the conference? Stop by the registration desk located near the Hotel's entrance on Wells Avenue during the hours of 2-8 p.m. on Friday and 7 a.m.-3 p.m. on Saturday.

GOVERNOR'S RECEPTION

There will be a special Governor's Reception, open to all conference attendees and their guests, from 6:15 p.m. until 7:15 p.m. on Saturday evening in the foyer outside the Roanoke Ballroom. Join in the Kiwanis fellowship and fun before the Governor's Banquet.

ATTENDANCE AT MEAL SESSIONS

Doors will open 15 minutes prior to every meal. Tickets will be required for admission. Be sure to wear your badge.

COCA-COLA PLANT TOUR

Spouses and family members not involved in training sessions are invited to join us in the main lobby near the registration desk at 10 a.m. Saturday. The plant is approximately a 10-minute walk each way.

MARKET PASSPORT ACTIVITY

Roanoke's famous City Market is located a short distance from the Hotel Roanoke. Conference attendees and their family members are invited to participate in visiting the retailers included in your packet, getting a stamp on your materials and entering the completed form after your return. There will be a blind drawing Sunday at breakfast for a $100 Visa gift card.

DUCKY DERBY DRAWING

Turn out at 5:05 p.m. Saturday in the Shenandoah Room and find out if anyone from your club is a winner. This annual event through the Capital District Foundation raises thousands of dollars for area neonatal hospital units – and rewards several supporting Kiwanians with gift cards and other prizes!

DISTRICT MAGAZINE CONTEST

In October 2020, I encouraged clubs and divisions to “SPREAD THE WORD” by submitting articles for publication in The Capital Kiwanian. I am proud to report that 46 clubs and 3 divisions submitted at least 1 article for a total of 90 articles!!

THANK YOU!!

Dan Casey is the metro columnist of The Roanoke Times. He's 63 and holds a bachelor of arts in English from the University of Maryland.

Dan started in the news business at age 11, delivering the Newark Evening News in northern New Jersey. In his teens he worked in a newspaper mailroom, and he sold newspaper ads one summer during college.

From 1980 to 1982, Dan worked in Washington, D.C. as a full-time bicycle messenger, mostly serving media outfits like the Associated Press, United Press International, The Washington Post, Newsweek and The New York Times.

The Bowie Blade News, a weekly in the Maryland suburbs of Washington, D.C. was his first newsroom job. SATURDAY, AUGUST 24

9AM – 9:30AM – KIWANIS IS A VERB

Keynote – Motivational Session

Listen up Kiwanians.....this is a CALL to action! Now that we are coming back to our service and leadership activities, let's explore what motivates each one of us and calls us to service. There are some amazing opportunities out there. How can we harness all of our pent-up energy over the past year and a half and use that for new projects, new fundraisers, and new Kiwanis adventures? Let's explore how we can take action and serve the community and our children better than ever.

JANE ERICKSON, PAST KIWANIS INTERNATIONAL PRESIDENT

Jane Erickson is a Past Kiwanis International President (2016 – 2017) and International Vice president (2014 – 2015). Jane has been a member of the Bellevue-Offutt Kiwanis Club for more than 20 years. Before that, she was a member of the Fort Dodge (Iowa) Noon Club, where she served as distinguished Club President. She's been a K-Kids advisor for almost 20 years and was a Kiwanian of the Year (2007 – 2008). Erickson served on the Kiwanis International Foundation Board of Trustees and was also its President. She continues to be a facilitator for Kiwanis Key Leader and is a recipient of Circle K International's McKittrick award, a Diamond-level George F. Hixson Fellow, Tablet of Honor recipient, Founders Circle, Kiwanis International Foundation's Heritage Society member, and Walter Zeller Fellow. Outside of Kiwanis, Erickson is owner of The Wellness & Training Works. She is a member of St. Mary's Catholic parish, the Bellevue Drug and Alcohol Prevention and Education Commission and a mentor with Teammates, a school mentoring program. Jane also keeps herself very busy with five children and seven grandchildren!

9:40AM – 10:10AM – KIWANIS IS A CONJUNCTIONRepresentation Matters

How can we be Kiwanians AND do our best job serving our community? Kiwanis Clubs need to foster relationships with the people in our clubs and in our communities. We need to include people with different views, thoughts, and ideas. It's all about representation and education. Let's explore why representation matters in your Kiwanis journey and how it will benefit your club members to embrace the differences in all of us.

ERIC LAMB, LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR & LTG CLASS PRESIDENT

Eric Lamb is a native of Charlottesville, VA and has lived there his entire life. He started his career as a teacher and then was promoted to a school Administrator in a public school that was the hub for special needs and International students. His last year in the school system, his school had 47 different native languages represented. Eric also has degrees in Sociology, Psychology and Restorative Justice. Eric is also a highly sought after consultant for Non-Profit organizations. He has dedicated his life to service and to asking the difficult questions of why and how? Why are things done this way – and how could things be done better? He is often accused of being “an out of the box” thinker. Eric joined Kiwanis 5 years ago and served as club president for 2 of those years. He is in his second term as Lt. Governor.

10:20AM – 10:50AM – KIWANIS IS A PRONOUN*Service Leadership Program (SLP) Core Values

SLP Programs represent some of most motivated people in the Kiwanis family. THEY do this while living and breathing our Kiwanis core values. Join our panel as they discuss some of these principles relating to our K-Kids, AKTION Club, Builders Clubs, and CKI programs. The panel will discuss the following values as they relate to each Service Leadership Program:

1. Character building: The ability to do the right thing, even when it might be the unpopular choice
2. Leadership: The ability to listen, communicate, serve, and guide others
3. Inclusiveness: Accepting and welcoming differences in other people
4. Caring: The act of being concerned about or interested in other people or situations

JUSTIN GARROW, KIWANIS KIDS DISTRICT ADMINISTRATOR

Justin Garrow is a member of the Canton-Fells Point Kiwanis Club, of which he is the Immediate Past Club President. He will be serving as the Kiwanis Kids District Administrator (2021 – 2022) and the CKI North Division Zone Administrator next Kiwanis year as well. He has served as the Lt. Governor in Division 14 (now Div 4) for the 2012 – 2013 Kiwanis year. In his career, Justin has spent almost two decades working in 'Before and After School' Programming. He is currently working for the Y of Central Maryland as a BASE Site Manager. In his spare time, Justin serves as an Interim Commissioner on the Baltimore City LGBTQ Commission.

JAMIE MOORE, LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR

Jamie Moore is a member of the Chester, VA Club. He is the current Lieutenant Governor of Division 10 (2019 – 2020 & 2020 – 2021 Kiwanis years). Jamie also spends his time serving as the current Builders Club Chair. In his spare time, he has spent 18 years as a teacher in four schools. He is currently teaching at Petersburg High School and has held that position since 2016. He is no stranger to giving back to the community through his teaching and Kiwanis experiences.

JENNIFER HISCOCK, AKTION CLUB ADMINISTRATOR

Jenn Hiscock can be found at any time with a smile on her face and a positive attitude! She is a go-getter and is always putting others before herself whether it be through her involvement in Kiwanis, the 4-H program, or in her job as a Special Education teacher. In her professional life, Jenn is entering her 10th year as a high school Special Education teacher in Montgomery County, Maryland where she serves as a College and Career counselor for students with disabilities. Teaching has been a dream of hers since second grade and once she started volunteering with a therapeutic riding program in sixth grade, she knew Special Education is where her heart laid! Jenn loves going to work every day! When not at school, she is very involved in her Kiwanis Club, serving as Club

President, a Key Club Zone Administrator, Regional Membership Chair, and serving as the Capital District Aktion Club Administrator. However, Kiwanis is not the extent of Jenn's volunteer commitments, as she also serves in many volunteer roles for the Maryland and Carroll County 4-H program. There is no such thing as free time in Jenn's life, but when she has a spare minute, she loves to spend it with her chocolate lab, Belle, or running!

11AM – 11:30AM – KIWANIS IS A NOUN

Human & Spiritual Values

It takes a VILLAGE of VALUES. Humans live best in a village, which can also be very challenging due to the differing values of community members. Be a part of the Kiwanis 2021 - 2022 Village of Values – a monthly program featuring human values that reach across our many religions and cultures. Learn more about how your club can use this program to introduce your members to the ways different cultures celebrate these human values, to speakers who can help our clubs bring these values to life in our clubs, and the service project ideas that bring these values to life in our communities.

CAROLYN RICAR, PAST CAPITAL DISTRICT GOVERNOR

Carolyn Richar has been a member of the Kiwanis Family since joining Circle K International as a freshman at Emory University in Atlanta, GA. The wonderful support of Kiwanians throughout her 5 years in CKI made joining Kiwanis a priority in her life. She was proud to join the Fairfax Kiwanis Club in 1989, serving as a Club President four times, Lieutenant Governor, in various District Committee Chairs, and as Governor of the Capital District. Carolyn will serve as the District Chairperson for Human and Spiritual Values Committee in 2021 – 2022. Outside of Kiwanis, Carolyn works full-time for Capital Caring Health, using her background as an RN and a minister to focus on clinical services and quality development. She also serves part time as the Associate Pastor of Bethel United Church of Christ. Carolyn is married to fellow Kiwanian, David Diesselhorst. She and David have three adult children. When she has a few free moments, Carolyn enjoys singing, reading, hiking with her two German shepherds, gardening and chocolate!

11:40AM – 12:10PM – KIWANIS IS AN INTERJECTIONAh Ha! My Kiwanis Moment Panel

An interjection is a word added to a sentence to convey an emotion or a sentiment such as surprise, disgust, joy, excitement, or enthusiasm. Well, what does an interjection have to do with membership? This session will feature Kiwanians from around the Capital District sharing their Kiwanis "Ah Ha!" moment. Their message of why they joined Kiwanis and why they have stayed a member through the years will inspire you and be a reminder of why we dedicate our time and talents to serve children and make a difference in our communities.

CAREN SCHUMACHER, CAPITAL DISTRICT MEMBERSHIP COORDINATOR

Caren Schumacher was born in Washington, D.C. and spent her life in the Maryland and Virginia suburbs until 21 years ago when she and her husband relocated to Williamsburg, VA. Caren spent her career as a National Trade Association Vice President and in 2018 retired from her 16-year tenure as Executive Director of the Historic Virginia Land Conservancy. A member of the Kiwanis Club of Williamsburg for the past 20 years, Caren has served as Club President and on the club's Foundation Board. She is a two-term Lieutenant Governor, served as Capital District Public Relations Chair, is currently the Capital District Membership Coordinator, and Certified Club Coach and Opener. Caren is a proud recipient of a Hixson Fellowship and a Walter Zeller Charter Member. She is also a member of the Capital Legacy e-club. Volunteering has always been a priority for Caren, who serves on other boards in her community and beyond. She is a past recipient of the Reston Citizen of the Year Award and the Fairfax County Citizen of the Year Citation. Caren has been married to Ed (also a Kiwanian) for 54 years, and they have 3 grown children and 6 grandchildren.

2PM – 2:30PM – KIWANIS IS AN ADJECTIVEA Cool & Dope Update

The young service leader is back! Cavanaugh has been busy since we talked to him at the Mid-Year Conference. The Gaithersburg native was honored with a Governor's citation for his work to help those in need during the coronavirus pandemic and for his anti-bullying campaign. He will give us an update on his service projects and the non-profit he founded a called “COOL & DOPE” – an acronym for “Considering Others’ Obstacles in Life and Dish Out Positive Energy.” Its mission is to end bullying worldwide by 2030. Come check out what this young leader – and friend to Kiwanis – has to say!

CAVANAUGH BELL, FOUNDER, COOL & DOPE NON-PROFIT

Cavanaugh Bell is the 8-year-old Chief Positivity Creator of the bullying prevention nonprofit, Cool & Dope. With a mission to end all bullying worldwide by 2030, Cool & Dope creates family volunteer and activism opportunities to empower youth to speak up and to speak out. For the pandemic, Cavanaugh used his life savings to make care packs for senior citizens and was able to quickly mobilize global donations to create the Love is Greater Than COVID-19 Community Pantry that has served 12,000+ people since April 2020, including sending $32K of critical COVID supplies and food to the poorest community in the Nation, the Pine Ridge Reservation in South Dakota. Cavanaugh has been awarded a Congressional Certificate of Recognition by House of Representative David Trone, been named a 2020 CNN Young Wonder, and the National Action Network’s 2020 MLK Award Recipient – as well as has had his work acknowledged by Maryland Governor Larry Hogan, President Donald Trump, and Vice President Kamala Harris.

2:40PM – 3:10PM – KIWANIS IS AN ADVERB

How We Modify

The definition of an adverb is a word or phrase that modifies or qualifies an adjective, verb, or other adverb or word group, expressing a relation of place, time, circumstance, manner, cause, degree, etc. Kiwanis Clubs are already engaged in MEANINGFUL service, fundraising, membership recruitment, etc. How can we improve upon these? This workshop will take a look at what our Kiwanis Clubs are currently doing, how we can modify it, and how to become more creative. This workshop will teach us to look at things from a different perspective and use the PAGES framework to help us achieve new objectives.

TIM GILLETTE, NATIONAL CAPITAL TRUSTEE

Tim Gillette is a member and Distinguished Past President of the Kiwanis Club of Tysons, VA. Tim served as Past Lt. Governor in 2016 – 2017 and was elected Class President. 3:20PM – 3:50PM – KIWANIS IS A PREPOSITION*Kiwanis is About You

Are you WITH Kiwanis? Kiwanis is about you. Kiwanis is about your Club. Kiwanis is about your community. Join us in a conversation about showcasing your pride in our organization and how to relate it to others. Remember....never end a sentence with Kiwanis. Always start it with Kiwanis!
