Waynesboro Public Library

We may be closed but we are making sure there are still free books in the community. Our director spent some time today stocking up the little free libraries around town! A special thank you to the Kiwanis club and the hosts of all of the little free libraries for your efforts to support literacy and the library. #LittleFreeLibrary #Reading #Live #Books #COVID-19 #Coronavirus

LITTLE FREE LIBRARY.ORG®
TAKE A BOOK • SHARE A BOOK

How Does This Library Work?

The Little Free Library offers a way to share good things to read—favorite books from your childhood or books you would recommend to friends; books that teach, intrigue and engage you.

Take a book. If you see something you'd like to read, take it. You don't have to give a book at the same time as you take one.

Share a book. After you've read it, share it in any Little Free Library book-sharing box, bring it back here, or pass it on to a friend. Share books whenever you can. If you cannot share a book, it is okay, please continue to use the library!

Little Free Library is a nonprofit organization that inspires a love of reading, builds community, and sparks creativity through neighborhood book-sharing boxes.

Is This Library Really Free?

Yes! There are kids and adult books in the Little Free Libraries. Please take a book or two to read and enjoy. When you are done, return them to this library, or to one of the other Little Free Libraries around town.

Who is Organizing the Little Free Libraries?

As a way to spread literacy throughout the community, The Kiwanis Club of Waynesboro has built the Little Free Libraries and will serve as library stewards, however the Little Free Library belongs to YOU! Its success depends on you, please read the books, share the books and spread the love of reading.

Can I Add Books to the Little Free Libraries?

Absolutely! The Little Free Libraries depend on community donations. Please add books to any Little Free Library at any time. If you see that the library is full, please contact the Kiwanis Club of Waynesboro if you would like us to hold the books for you to add at another time. You can email sam.kiwanis@gmail.com or find us on Facebook!
