

CAPITAL DISTRICT KIWANIS FAMILY DEIBA RESOURCE GUIDE

This resource guide is intended to provide members of the Capital District Kiwanis Family with tools to use in educating themselves and fellow members about the important topics of diversity, equity, inclusion, belonging, and accessibility. The resources compiled here allow for personal introspection, group dialogue, and learning in multiple formats. The intention of sharing these resources is to help develop a deeper appreciation for diversity, equity, inclusion, and belonging in the Kiwanis Family and to provide guidance on how to actively engage in practices that promote these important values and principles. This is not meant to be an exhaustive list, but a starting point of discussion and learning. If you have any suggestions, please submit them to
