CLUB OF MISSION VIEJO

MADNESS NEWSLETTER—July 10, 2022

Pet of the Week

Librarian to Speak on Tale Trail Topic

Genesis Hansen of the Mission Viejo Library will be the guest speaker at Tuesday's meeting.

She will discuss the Kiwanis involvement in the Tale Trail project as well as other issues involving the library.

Bring your questions.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Bias Towards Dogs Seems Apparent to Reader

Good to see that the new and improved newsletter is also expanded.

BUT I feel that there exists an obvious bias in the editor's viewpoint toward what is best between a dog and a cat. i.e.the dog is portrayed as dumb in one cartoon; whereas in another cartoon the cat is depicted as a sweet thing always happy without a care in the world.

What will he say about a proud member's ostrich, or zebra, or python, when he describes pictures submitted by the proud member during the upcoming pet contest??

Growl, roar, hiss, tweet,

Capo Valley Key Club Officially Transferred

Kiwanis International has formally accepted the transfer of oversight for the Capistrano Valley High School Key Club to Mission Viejo Kiwanis from San Clemente Kiwanis.

Jeff has taken the lead on this long process and is in the initial stages of establishing contact with the Key Club leaders at Capo. Chloe Stone, one of the recipients at the last Student Recognition program, is the Key Club president. Mia Leiva is the secretary. Tim Garrity, a teacher at Capo Valley, is the Key Club faculty advisor.

CHLOE STONE

The Key Club officers and the Board of Directors will be invited to a Club breakfast at Denny's before the new school term begins.

There is still a lot of work to be done including membership recruitment and getting the Key Club dues current. Currently the Key Club is under suspension status at Kiwanis International.

Thanks to Jeff for initiating this transfer.
