Baby Bottle Baron Bags Big Bucks Bonanza

PETE ZIMMERMAN Tuesday delivered an envelope containing $219 in cash as part of the latest collection of money for the CHOC at Mission Baby Bottle Fund.

Pete, the keeper of the Baby

Bottles for use in support of pediatric trauma kids at CHOC Mission, delivered a 219-dollar addition to the fund on Tuesday.

This is an easy, weekly fund-raiser as part of the Club's Community Service outreach efforts. It has a handy slot to drop in coins. However, since people tend not to be packing around a lot of heavy change these days, the bottle top comes off easily to accept folding money.

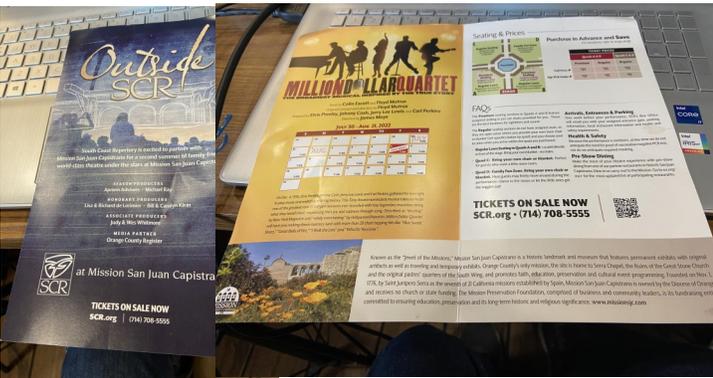

Let's keep a smile on the Baron's face; fill those bottles!

THIS WEEK'S GROANER

Q. What's the best fish to put on peanut butter?

A. Jellyfish

GREG GUTH reported on upcoming performances of the Broadway Musical Million Dollar Quartet program at Mission San Juan in collaboration with South County Repertory. The show features a performance based on the collaboration of Elvis Presley, Jerry Lee Lewis, Johnny Cash and Carl Perkins. July 30-Aug. 21. Ticket information and dates (714) 708-5555.

Pet of the Week

Ziva Esterline graciously took time out of her very busy afternoon schedule to pose for this portrait with her new pillow to help launch a new Madness feature — YOUR PET PHOTO OF THE WEEK. Send us a picture of your pet — dog, cat, iguana, guinea pig — whatever, and we'll let fellow Kiwanians take a peek at your pet family. New photos preferred, but not necessary. Please include pet's name, breed and other vital stats such as how long they've been with you. If no photos are submitted, the editor will just keep running various portraits of his six cats.

HAPPY/SAD DOLLARS

ED MITCHELL was sad that his Madness newsletter arrived upside down and he had to stand on his head to read it. He was also sad that Stanford was blown out of the NCAA baseball playoffs

LARRY CALLISON happily reported that daughter Emily took him to an Angels game to celebrate his birthday.

OLLIE VAUGHAN was happy that his son and daughter-in-law took him to The Fisherman's on the San Clemente Pier for Father's Day.

PAT GRIGGS had a regrettable dollar that their regular game of Hand & Foot turned into disaster for her team. HUGH JURKIEWICZ was on the winning team.

BILL GARRETT had a very nice Father's Day outing with his family to Domenico's on the Lake in Mission Viejo.
