Capo Key Club re-forming with at least 80 members

The start of the school year at Capistrano Valley High School has marked the rebirth of the Key Club, currently under suspension by Kiwanis International for non-payment of dues.

New Key Club President Chloe Stone was a guest at Tuesday's Kiwanis meeting and noted that the club is working with KI to lift the suspension.

“We have 80 members now and hope to have around 120 after Fall

Capistrano Valley High School (H90143)

This is a suspended club. The club has no current year. To reactivate the club, create and last name, email address (not needed)

Rush,” she told Kiwanians. “We are working with Member Services to submit names of club members and get an invoice to pay,”

Jeff Badrtalei initiated the transfer of the Key Club from oversight by San Clemente Kiwanis. He is serving as liaison to the Key Club.

KIWANIS MEMBERS distributed food at a city-sponsored program at the Murray Center Friday. Also helping were Bob's wife, Melody, and Stephanie's neighbor, Liz.

HAPPY & SAD

PAT & HUGH are traveling to Coos Bay, Ore., for a visit with Hugh's brother. They plan a stop on the way home to visit with Pat's former sister-in-law.

OLLIE is newly returned from a family visit in Phoenix and is now off for a week of cruising to Cabo.

BOB was sad to report that his trip with MELODY to Greece was canceled the day before it was to begin. They both had some health issues but fortunately they are much better now.

WARREN was glad to be home after delayed flights to and from Las Vegas as well as encountering inoperative elevators at the Mirage Hotel caused by a broken water pipe.

GREG had a wonderful visit to Mission San Juan for an evening performance of the Million Dollar Quartet. South Coast Repertory sponsored the program.

DIDJA KNOW?

Larry Callison reports that German chocolate cakes are not named for the country, but instead are named for the cake's creator in 1852, Samuel German.
