HAPPY/SAD DOLLARS

BILL was happy to be celebrating the second birthday of his granddaughter with big party doings.

GREG and KATHIE enjoyed another trip to Paso Robles to attend the Rhone Rangers wine-tasting lollapalooza.

OLLIE had a fun train trip to Santa Barbara for a weekend stay.

KATHY made a very early morning trip to San Pedro for the "just off the boat" fresh fish auction.

JEFF had a hopeful dollar that no one ever has to try to talk to someone in the state's Attorney General's office where no one is ever available to answer a question.

WARREN had a curious dollar to see if he would be summoned to Newport Harbor Court during his week of jury call-in status. UPDATE: He wasn't.

WE GET LETTERS...

THINGS TO PONDER

—THE CITY OF MISSION VIEJO is soliciting community backing for federal funds to build a 300- to 500-seat multi-purpose facility in the Civic Core project in the shopping center across from the library. The Club will consider sending a letter in support of the center to be used for author events, children's reading programs and more.

—THE ANNUAL VOCATIONAL VISIONS half-day bowling event is in the planning stages. Ed, Pat and Hugh are working out the details. May 6 was initially proposed.

—KIWANIS SUPPORT is being sought for the city's Family Arts Day planned for the Potocki Center on May 13.
