THIS IS WHAT HAPPENS

when you get to the second page of a newsletter and find you are left with a big gaping hole at the top and nothing to put into the space. You reach into your cat folder in desperation and pull out a shot of three of the Esterline cats helping Corky piece together a jigsaw puzzle. Clockwise beginning at the top left are Daisy, Patches and Ziva.

HAPPY & SAD

OLLIE reported that he had a scheduled surgery Wednesday to implant a “Watchman” device designed to ward off any blood clots.

GREG was sad that UCLA lost a football game to Oregon, “a much better team,” led by Auburn transfer Bo Nix.

STEPH was glad to be home after a long road trip to and from Michigan where she and RUSS went to visit family and friends. The return trip through Colorado was fraught with numerous freeway detours and delays.

LARRY PIZZI was glad for a 10-day vacation to Oahu and Kauai. It was the first Hawaii visit for wife SUSIE.

ED was happy to recall a memory of his Dad who paid for passage to Hawaii shoveling coal on a steamship. His Dad stayed at one of two hotels on the island, the Royal Hawaiian, where they dispensed free pineapple juice from a spigot in the wall. It was 1920.

PETE was happy his daughter Nicole and son-in-law Daniel got his new power chair programmed and his computer working with just an easy sign-in passcode.

KATHY was happy that a great friend, Shelley, had joined the cast of “Omar” put on by the Los Angeles Opera.

HUGH and PAT joined his two adult sons and their significant others to carve pumpkins.
