

NO STAGE FRIGHT—Dr. Pat Griggs served as emcee of the Third Quarter Student Recognition program and presented Certificates to award-winning theatre arts students Bella, Cherney, Evan Nowack and Maiya Stigall. Principal John Misustin offered praise for the work of the very talented performers.

Cougar Award Winners

MAIYA STIGALL—Nominated by the Theatre Arts Department ... Has performed in four plays while at Capistrano Valley...Her most recent role was the lead in Mary Poppins which featured her flying through the air...She is involved in all facets of theatre production.

EVAN NOWACK—Nominated by the Theatre Arts Department...He has been involved in many stage productions both on and off stage...He's a producer of Capo Media...Evan plans to attend Chapman University in Orange next year and major in Theatre Arts.

BELLA CHERNEY—Nominated by the Theatre Arts Department...She's only a sophomore, but has had many roles on stage at Capistrano Valley...She's also currently serving as the Co-President of the Capistrano Theatre Arts Program.

STUDENT SALUTE—Another year of recognizing the achievements of students at Mission Viejo, Tesoro and Capistrano Valley high schools was completed Tuesday with a program at Fairhaven. A highly vocal audience of parents and friends made for a lively meeting. Food was supplied by Something Special Catering arranged by Pat. Special thanks to Patricia Brooks and April Trzyna of Fairhaven for the table arrangements, coffee and technical support.

KIWANIS

APRIL 25 Meeting

MEETING WAS HELD AT FAIRHAVEN

MEMBERS—Rod Wilbert, Pat Griggs, Jeff Badrtalei, Barbara Schulman, Larry Pizzi, Hugh Jurkiewicz, Bill Garrett, Larry Callison, Greg Guth, Stephanie Tanton, Ed Mitchell, Keith Sims, Bob Gaebel and Warren Esterline.

SONG—America the Beautiful/led by Rod.

FLAG SALUTE—Bill.

GEORGE’S WORDS OF WISDOM— Bill

"Life's most persistent and urgent question is, 'What are you doing for others?'"

—Martin Luther King

Kiwanis International
100 YEARS

WE CHANGE LIVES!

A desire to serve. A place to connect. Join the club.

Key Club
Service programs for high school students

SEE'S ABOARD SHIP

Kiwanis Mission Viejo
48 YEARS

- Quarterly recognition of local high school students
- Raise money for scholarships through See's Candles® fundraisers
- Support our soldiers with See's Candles donations & toy drives

Connect to our community
Join the Kiwanis of Mission Viejo Team

- Fun & fellowship
- Education & networking
- Service projects & activities

HELPING OTHERS—This colorful informational board telling the Mission Viejo Kiwanis story is maintained and updated by Stephanie.

Childrens Librarian Claire Crawford at Celebration Park on the Oso Creek Trail.

Mommy and Me reading for fun.

Steph helps extract a magnifier from a book.

A joint library Kiwanis project.

Touching what a leaf feels like.

Warren, Keith and Jeff at Friday's book dedication.

Librarians Jenny and Claire with Stephanie.