Fossil Finds Topic Tuesday

Archaeologist Curt Duke will speak Tuesday at 7:30 a.m. at the Kiwanis meeting at Denny’s. He will discuss numerous fossil finds in Mission Viejo.

He received his B.A. in Anthropology in 1994 from the University of California, Santa Cruz, with an emphasis in forensic anthropology, human evolution, and archaeology. He earned his M.A. in Anthropology in 2006 from California State University, Fullerton.

HAPPY/SAD DOLLARS

STEPH reports Mr. and Mrs. Bluebird are nest building at her home.

BILL is dealing with the mud dropping from doves and sparrows.

OLLIE is hosting two Spring Break chums of grandson Ash.

BARBARA is recovering from an illness that hit on vacation. She soon will be providing care for her son after surgery.

JEFF was sad UCI Men’s basketball team lost in the Big West Tourney, but happy they qualified for the NIT event.

Blue Chip Dip winners were Ed, Hugh and Rod.
