SPORTS REPORT

Alabama Tide Crushed, 71-64, by San Diego State in NCAAs

LOUISVILLE, Ky.—No. 1 overall seed Alabama, which emerged as the most dominant and divisive team during a turbulent 2022-23 season, sputtered offensively and found an exit from the NCAA tournament on Friday night.

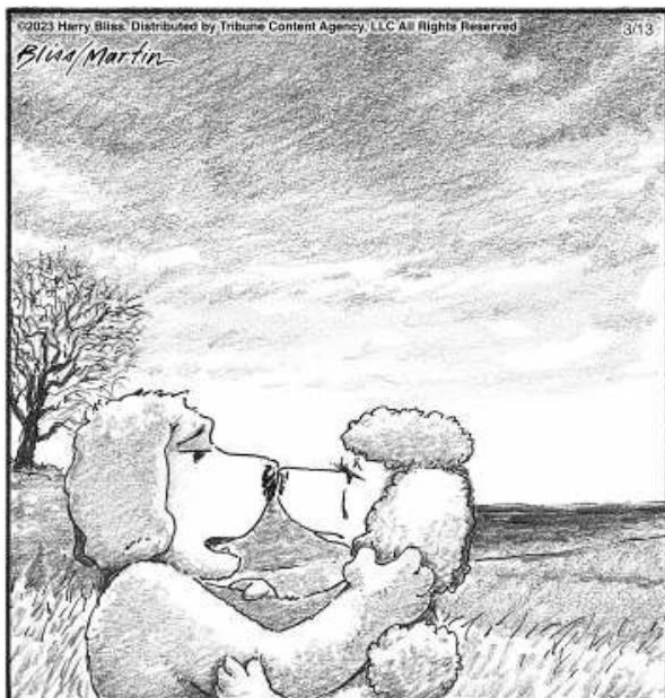

The Crimson Tide fluctuated between careless and reckless in a sloppy 71-64 loss to No. 5 seed San Diego State, as they finished the night with 14 turnovers and shot just 3 for 27 from 3-point range.

—ESPN REPORT

FOSSIL FINDER — Archaeologist Curt Duke was the guest speaker Tuesday, providing a very interesting look at the pre-historic origins of Orange County. A now-extinct whale was found in one of the digs, showing that the ocean once extended all the way to Saddleback Mountain. The resident of Rancho Santa Margarita is the owner of Cultural Resources Management in Irvine. He contracts with developers and cities to make sure building projects comply with state regulations.
