

Kiwaniis®

CLUB OF MISSION VIEJO

MADNESS NEWSLETTER—MAY 7, 2023

BOWLING FUN—Forty-four Vocational Visions bowlers turned out Saturday for a day of fun at Saddleback Lanes; Mark from Mission Viejo High enjoyed a success for Margot; Pat, Barbara and Hugh made things run smoothly; nine students from Capistrano Valley and Mission Viejo high schools made a big contribution keeping the client teams organized.

BOWLING SCENES— Jeff with Capo Valley Key Clubbers Will, Keira and Mia; Sue from our new corporate member Financial Planners Credit Union was a big help with the bowlers; Larry and Steph were lane supervisors; Rod got in the spirit with a prized bowling shirt; Keith showed off the Kiwanis colors; Ed was all smiles because the 48th Vocational Visions bowling event drew so many participants.

FOODIES—Hugh, Pat, Liz, Barbara, Larry, Rod, Steph, Larry and Ed dispensed food at Friday’s Pack-It Market at the Norman P. Murray Center as volunteers in the City of Mission Viejo free food distribution program.

CHICKEN COUP—Sharon collected 38 empty egg cartons from friends to share with South County Outreach as part of the food pantry offerings to clients. Fresh eggs bought in bulk are re-packaged into dozen-size cartons.

Happy/Sad

OLLIE announced that grandson Ash has been accepted into the SkyWest pilot training program.

BILL was happy to announce that a daughter who is a guidance counselor at Fountain Valley High School was to receive her Master’s Degree from Concordia on Saturday.

PAT and HUGH played cards with PETE and JUDI. The men won.

LARRY P. enjoyed a trip to Lancaster to view the beautiful poppy fields.

JEFF thoroughly enjoyed a granddaughter’s performance in her middle school performance of “Legally Blonde.”

CALENDAR

MAY 9: Silverado High School Student Recognition, Denny’s, 7:30 a.m.

MAY 13: Family Arts Day, 9:45 a.m. Potocki Center for the Arts.

MEMBERS—Rod Wilbert, Pat Griggs, Jeff Badrtalei, Barbara Schulman, Larry Pizzi, Hugh Jurkiewicz, Bill Garrett, Larry Callison, Greg Guth, Stephanie Tanton, Omar Garcia, Ed Mitchell, Sharon Philippe, Ollie Vaughan and Warren Esterline.

SONG—Amazing Grace/ Rod

FLAG SALUTE—Barbara.

GEORGE’S WORDS OF WISDOM— Bill

"Don't worry about the world coming to an end today. It's already tomorrow in Australia."
—Charles M. Schulz

Blue Chip Dip

Winners were Steph (big blue, donated back), Rod and Omar.