GEORGE’S WORDS OF WISDOM— Bill

"Don't worry about failure. Worry about the chances you miss when you don't even try."

—Jack Canfield

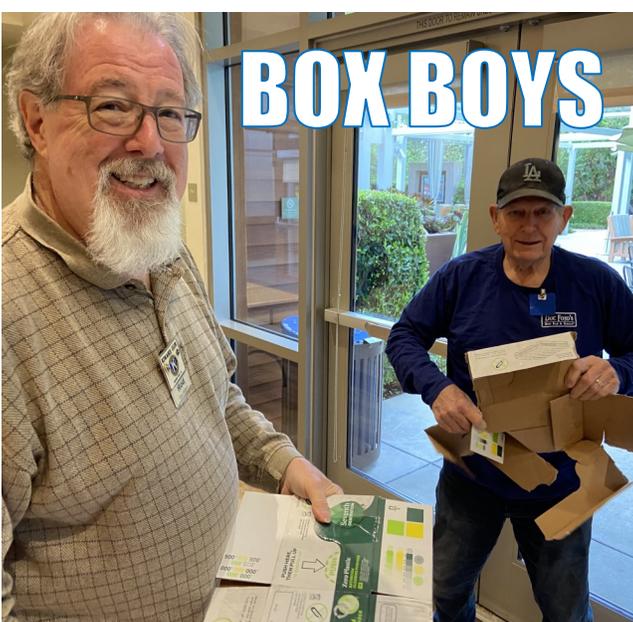

Chicken Soup for the Soul

Blue Chip Dip

Keith, Larry C. and Greg.

BOX BOYS

WENT TO MARKET— Dispensing food Friday at the Murray Center were Hugh, Liz, Pat, Rod, Steph, Alex, Warren, Larry and Barbara. Liz and Alex were guests of Stephanie.

Happy/Sad Dollars

LARRY PIZZI reported a fun time attending the Highland Games at the Orange County Fairgrounds. He especially enjoyed the caber toss event. In response to a question from Kathy, he did not eat any haggis.

KEITH really enjoyed a Memorial Day concert broadcast on PBS.

WARREN took CORKY to Costco for a Sunday outing (laughter), not to shop but to see Rod's entry in the inaugural Fast & Furious car show to aid CHOC.

BILL recalled that a family member had offered him title to a 1940 Packard which he declined in part because the car was too long to park in his garage. He is certain he saved a lot of money in repairs by not acquiring a free car.

PAT was sad for all the crashes at the end of the Indy 500, and for the rioting teens at the pier in San Clemente on Memorial Day.

STEPHANIE recalled attending a Michigan 500 racing event and watching a frustrated and angry A.J. Foyt who was unable to insert his large frame into an Indy car.

GREG liked a Netflix movie with Tom Hanks, "A Man Called Otto."
