Happy/Sad Dollars

ED AND SUSIE were unhappy Monday because they wanted to enjoy music on TV but they had to eventually turn it off because the Juneteenth music on every station was not their cup of tea.

BILL was happy to see Bob back at a meeting. He also was hopeful that four cases of wine promised by his son-in-law and daughter would soon arrive from Italy.

LARRY C. reported that daughter Emily was off on a multi-state trip visiting potential campuses where she might pursue her master's degree.

WARREN was happy to be observing his 58th wedding anniversary with Corky.

JEFF was saddened by a house painting project that kept getting bigger and bigger as the contractor found more things that needed attention.

HUGH was treated to a Father's Day lunch by his son. He also had the challenge of trying to get up into his son's Ford Bronco.

KATHY was happy that a young friend shared his catch of the day — a 75-pound blue fin tuna.
