Happy/Sad Dollars

OLLIE was proud of a grandson who graduated from Capo Valley with a 4.8 GPA. He's enrolled at Alabama.

LARRY PIZZI went to a Dodger game with his brother-in-law from Connecticut. The Dodgers lost but they had a great time.

JEFF had a very enjoyable trip on the Danube and learned interesting customs of the people along the way.

ED was sad the Stanford Women's softball team lost to eventual champion Oklahoma.

KEITH was sad that Laguna Hills High events had been disrupted by a man who delivered threats to the school.

Notable This Week

A $100 contribution was made from the Foundation to the Kiwanis International Children's Fund, per a report from Jeff.

July 4 is a Tuesday this year, thus there will be no meeting that week.

Melody Downey, Vocational Visions Clubhouse manager, wrote to say that clients got immense joy attending the club's annual bowling event. "They are so proud of their medals."

Collection of inoperable light bulbs is being considered as a community service project.
