Egg Carton Gathering Halted

EGGSTRA, EGGSTRA — South County Outreach no longer needs empty containers for their egg distribution, Jeff has been advised. According to SCO, grocery stores where they used to receive free eggs in bulk have stopped doing that.

So instead, the food pantry is purchasing eggs in different package sizes for their distribution.

Does anyone have any contacts with other local groups who might need a supply of empty cartons?

Happy/Sad Dollars

GREG had a nice visit with PETE at Del's Haven and reported that he "looked good."

OLLIE was sad to report that he appears to have lost his nice Kiwanis badge.

KEITH was happy that he was able to make the meeting in time to hear the opening bell.

LARRY reported that daughter Emily was covering a lot of territory visiting college campuses in the south including Clemson for a potential site to pursue a master's degree.

JEFF was happy to be extremely busy shepherding grandkids to flag football, a golf driving range and to In-N-Out for burgers.

BILL was pleased his grandkids got to visit each other via Facetime (one is in Italy). He was also happy to be re-elected to a three-year term on the Science Heads Board of Directors as well as launching his 29th year at the Pageant of the Masters.

HELP NEEDED — It's time to pass out food once again at the Norman Murray Center this Friday (July 7) from 7:45 to 9 a.m.
