CALENDAR

AUGUST 8: Regular meeting, program looks at Heritage Pointe senior living.

AUGUST 15: Regular meeting. LaVal Brewer of South County Outreach is guest speaker.

GREAT PARTY — Thanks to Ed, Susie and Pepper for being perfect hosts Saturday. Ed’s piano performance of “Moonlight Sonata” was impressive. Thanks as well to Jim Carlin for emceeding the pub quiz.

Community Service with a Big Smile

Club members and guests were on hand Friday morning for the monthly community service project passing out food to senior citizens at the Murray Center. Rod, Pat, Hugh, Warren, Steph and Larry were joined by Liz and Alex (center). Nearly 90 clients of the Mission Viejo program got food from the Second Harvest Food Bank.

Bob Gaebel has a birthday Aug. 10 and he and Melody are observing a wedding anniversary on Aug. 28. Congratulations!

Pete and Judi Zimmerman have a wedding anniversary on Aug. 15. Congratulations!

HAPPY/SAD DOLLARS

BILL was happy to have attended a party his oldest daughter threw for her husband’s 40th birthday. It was a Masters Golf theme with elaborate decorations and a hibachi chef.

JEFF was sad to be joining the meeting via Zoom after he tested positive for COVID after feeling poorly last weekend.

ED was wondering what would happen to his alma mater Stanford and three other Pac-12 schools after the mass exodus of all but four of the schools to other conferences.

LARRY CALLISON really enjoyed watching a fascinating Netflix program on the complexities of building and launching the Webb Telescope.

PAT and HUGH saw “Oppenheimer” and “really loved it.”

OLLIE saw “Mission Impossible” and thought it was “awful.”
