ROXANA DELGADO presented an informative program Tuesday on the residence opportunities and extensive amenities available at Heritage Pointe senior living community in Mission Viejo where she is Director of Marketing and Admissions. Pat Griggs arranged for her appearance.

OLLIE offered kudos to Ed and Susie for hosting the Kiwanis party at their house. He then offered his house for a Kiwanis Christmas party.

HAPPY/SAD DOLLARS

PAT reported a very nice outing to the Village Green for the Pacific Symphony performance.

KEITH was sad to have missed the Kiwanis party but a prior commitment which turned out to be a great trip to the Nethercutt Museum of classic cars in Sylmar with his son.

ED was feeling sorry for the U.S. Women's National Soccer Team which was ousted from the World Cup by Sweden.

LARRY CALLISON was happy for a Dodger comeback win over the Padres.

HEY, LOOK US OVER (Sung to the tune of "Hey Look Me Over")

*Hey look us over, lend us an ear,
We of Kiwanis hail from far and near,
We're here with a purpose, members with a goal,
Whenever we're given a job to do, we sure pour on the coal!*

*And while we sing here together, good members all,
We of Kiwanis answering the call,
We remember our Motto—We're builders all,"
So kindly give us room!
Hail Kiwanis! Here we come!*
