MADNESS NEWSLETTER—DECEMBER 23, 2023

HAPPY/SAD

OLLIE donated $1,000 to the A Account in recognition of the 50 great years he has spent in Kiwanis attending meetings around the world.

GREG was filled with joy after UCLA beat Boise State in the L.A. Bowl.

BILL really enjoyed the classic car show which rolled past his Casta Del Sol home.

ROD was one of the 34 participants.

BOB reported a nice party bus outing. He reported the bus featured a “stripper pole” which, according to Bob, went unused.

ED was happy to celebrate the accomplishments of Sandra Day O’Connor, the first woman to serve on the U.S. Supreme Court. The Stanford law school grad who was only offered a secretary job upon graduation was appointed to the court by President Ronald Reagan.

CANDY FOR MARINES — Bill Garrett delivered 172 pounds of chocolate to Gayle Wood for shipment to Camp Pendleton. Gayle chairs the city’s Marines and Sailors Adoption Committee.

Saluting Our Corporate Member Family

THANKS, ROSA — Our faithful Denny’s server, Rosa, received candy and cash as thanks for her great service all year long. The Denny’s manager received a box of See’s as well. (Below) Larry and Bill in festive attire celebrate the Christmas season and the end of See’s Candy sales.

SAY SEE’S— Stephanie volunteered for five shifts in front of the Albertson’s store at Alicia and Olympiad. Jeff is assessing the final profit number and will have a final report in early January. “There were a lot of new challenges this year, but we did as well as could reasonably be expected,” noted President Larry.
