BLUE CHIP DIP WINNERS

Rod, Bob and Barbara (in absentia). Alas, one week in a row without a Blue Chipper.

ALLISON TRAN of the city's Cultural Arts Department provided a comprehensive view of the many programs in the city including the colorful Jeronimo Tunnel which has been turned into a venue for music. An update on a possible center for music and plays will be given at Council this week. Thanks to Stephanie for arranging this program.

HAPPY/SAD DOLLARS

JEFF happily displayed a t-shirt proclaiming UCI as the Big West basketball champs. He's in Henderson, Nevada, this week cheering on his son RYAN'S Anteaters in the Big West Tournament.

STEPHANIE was happy to have finally kicked COVID and a cold.

KEITH was happy for the USC Women's Basketball Team who captured the final Pac-12 title. (The conference is disbanding.)

GREG was very disappointed that the UCLA Men's Basketball Team ended its season with a losing record, one of the worst UCLA seasons in recent memory.

CELEBRATING

Larry and Susie Pizzi have observed their 49th wedding anniversary. They met at USC at a fraternity-sorority event.

Barbara Schulman will be observing her birthday on March 21. The Kiwanis Chorus is preparing a rousing rendition of "Happy Birthday."
