Defining Statement

Kiwanis is a global organization of volunteers dedicated to improving the world, one child and one community at a time.

Flag Salute

As our flag signifies purity, valor, and justice, may we as true Kiwanians exemplify these virtues as we serve the children of the world.

ANNOUNCEMENTS:

President Caroline Collins announced the members of the ad hoc committee for the USA 250th anniversary celebration; Jerry Smith, Ellingsworth Webb, and John Rey.

Mardi Gras meeting tomorrow (Thursday) afternoon 1:30 at Oak Crest.

Feed My Starving Children is back this November. We have 20 spots for Nov. 13th 3-5 p.m., and 20 spots for Nov. 15th 6-8 p.m. A social event follows, details TBD.

Interclub is Oct. 21st 6 p.m. at Sorrento's. It is rumored that there will be program from the District Office.

Circle K met Wednesday at 5 p.m. at the NIU Student Center. Next meeting is Oct. 22nd.

Check your yearbook information and send any corrections to Sue Doubler.

SPECIAL BOARD MEETING:

Held during our regular meeting, we approved (with regrets) the resignation of Dave Conlin who has moved to Earlville, and Beryl Smith. A rousing chorus of "Beryl, Beryl, Beryl" echoed throughout to honor the long time member.

We also agreed to donate our 7 8' tables to the DeKalb Library.

Tabled was a suggestion to donate our largest tent due to the difficulty of using it.

Program:

While waiting for our program to show up, our President Caroline Collins interviewed herself and summarized her comments thusly:

"She recently joined Toastmasters which is a nonprofit educational organization that builds confidence and teaches public speaking skills. She decided to practice her first speech on us.

Caroline was born in Chicago, IL. but for most of her childhood she lived in Skokie. She came out here to go to school at NIU. She didn't know what she wanted to do at age 18 but she knew she liked French. She got a BA in French education. After graduating, she ended up at a school working with kids with autism. She fell in love with those kids and decided to get her masters in Special Ed. She now is working with adults with disabilities at Opportunity House. Right now, Caroline feels she is having a bit of a mid-life crisis because she is reflecting on her values and how she can incorporate more of them into her professional life. She highly values health, learning, bringing daily joy into her life (through one of her many hobbies), and helping others. She ended the speech asking people to reflect on how they can bring more joy into their life through their values."

Unfortunately our program, Steve Lundin of the DHS Marching Band was unable to join us, however, Erin Grych (John Smith's daughter) was able to fill in and forwarded a summary of her comments. A check for $350 was presented that will help the band cover its cost for a trip to Prague.

“Thanks again for your help today and for DeKalb Kiwanis generous support to DeKalb High School Band Program. I have attached my script plus some additional info about the band. I know I was asked a couple of questions too. I think one was do the students pay a fee to be in band - "yes a school fee of $100, but if you are free and reduced that fee is waved"

The other was "What's the difference between the Band Parent Organization and the Music Boosters?" I shared that Music Boosters supports all music programs in DeKalb. Band Parent Organization is another group specific for band. They help organize snacks for after games or during Marching Band Competitions, who will help fit uniforms, help feed the band during band camp, etc.. It wouldn't be fair to ask an orchestra parent to come in and help fit uniforms for band members so there is a group of band parents to help support the band activities.

I have attached a link to the Band Parent and Fans Facebook group that has pictures and videos of the marching band.”
