Defining Statement

Kiwanis is a global organization of volunteers dedicated to improving the world, one child and one community at a time.

Flag Salute

As our flag signifies purity, valor, and justice, may we as true Kiwanians exemplify these virtues as we serve the children of the world.

ANNOUNCEMENTS:

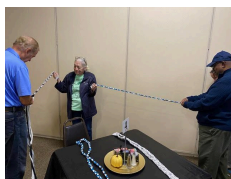

Tony Chulick reminded us that this fall's Feed My Starving Children packing project, hosted by the Suter Company on Bethany Road, comes up next month, and we have two open times: on Thursday, November 13, from 3:00 until 5:00 PM, and on Saturday the 18th from 6:00 until 8:00 PM. Slots are filling up fast. Tony passed around our sign up sheet today — our last chance to claim those nifty hairnets.

Tim Dunlop announced that our Social Sports Committee would like to invite everyone to have dinner at Rosita's after we finish at Suter's on Thursday. Come and enjoy!

Tim noted, too, that this Saturday, we can bring all our unwanted or broken electronic gizmos to the DeKalb Airport, where they'll be whisked away and recycled. That's on October 18, from 9:00 AM until noon.

Program:

Bob Hoffman set up our program today: we cut worn out t-shirts in strips, and braided them into jump ropes for children across the country, and around the world. Samaritan's Purse is an organization founded by Franklin Graham (Billy's son) that provides spiritual and physical aid to hurting people – victims of war, famine, hurricanes and other natural disasters.

Bob has joined with 35,000 other volunteers to distribute food and clothing and heartfelt support to people in North Carolina, those who lost their homes in the wake of Hurricane Helene. He'll be returning to that troubled area on Sunday.

Since 1993, Bob has served churches that are a part of Operation Christmas Child, an annual campaign that distributes gift boxes — shoe boxes packed with soccer balls, pumps, dolls, pencils, crayons, scissors, combs, caps, wash cloths and jump ropes — to children in more than 170 countries and territories.

After his brief introduction, with care and patience, Bob put us to work.
