OUR MONTHLY KIWANIS NEWSLETTER

WELCOME TO THE KIWANIS CLUB OF BALD EAGLE AND NITTANY VALLEYS

By President Penny

A new year is upon us and with it brings the challenges of doing service in the midst of the pandemic. We have faced challenges in the past months, but have managed to still fulfill our mission of service. I want to take a minute to thank all of you for being the dedicated Kiwanians that we have always prided ourselves in being. We will face many more challenges, but these we will overcome as well.

WHAT DID OCTOBER BRING?

October brings the ghouls and the goblins . Pictured at right is our own goblin, Tim Meyers showing a donation of $50 to Mill Hall Fire Department's Bill Strunk for their Trick or treat. Other donations for Halloween fun were Clinton County Housing, $50.00 and Infant Development $100 for the Pumpkin Patch and treats for the kiddos.

Member Orientation

Della Watson, membership chair, held a member orientation meeting at the Mill Hall Fire Hall on Wednesday, October 28th. Three newest members, Ricky Reinberg, Ashley Rohr, and Rachel Muir were all in attendance. Along with the Orientation, a session was held to help members do their background checks. Pizza, snacks, water, and soda were provided.

Member Tim Meyers is shown giving a testimonial as to "WHY I AM A KIWANIAN"
