Hello fellow Kiwanians! May was a great month and June is looking like even more fun.

A recap of May. Thanks to Pat Kiessling and all her helpers, our Kiwanis Park looks great. The Prayer Breakfast hosted by the Northwest Club that we helped with was very well attended and our speaker Jerry Jarzynka gave a heartwarming speech. Thank you to Jim & Beth Philo for getting our Flag Project off to a great start. I think we are over 1,200 flags again this year. And thanks to all of you volunteers for planting and picking up flags. We inducted one new member in May, Amanda Desnoyer, a very welcome addition.

June is here! I'm sure it can't be as wet as May. This should be a fun month. We get it started with the opening to the Splash Pad at Cascades Park. Thanks to Denny DaPra, we will be giving out free pizza and ice cream to those enjoying the Splash Pad on June 7th. Join us to see the fun the kids have and smiles we get from them for the pizza and ice cream. On June 14th we will be awarding two young people with a $2,000 scholarship. Mary Lou McFadden and her committee have selected two very qualified recipients, Mackenzie Lamphere and Dylan Schroeder. I am holding the LEGO picnic at Kiwanis Park on Wednesday, June 5 at 10:30 for the 18 second graders from Bennett School in our Lego Club. The Lego Club and the picnic are a reward to them for being good students. June 28th is our awards day and Joe Wolfe will be handing out the yearly awards to our membership. Also, the Kiwanis International Convention is June 27 – 30 at Walt Disney World in Orlando. And don't forget, we have flags to do!

This should be another fun month for us Kiwanians. Thanks to all of you that help and participate and for those of you who don't, give it a try. It is only a small amount of time and with a lot of satisfaction from it.

Make it a good month!
Mike Zuchowski

All are welcome! Thank you to our volunteers who will be serving that day.

Kiwanis would like to thank “Little Caesar’s Take Out” for their generosity by selling the club 50 pizzas at a 50% discount.

Kiwanis would also like to thank Cascades Ice Cream for their generous donation of all the ice cream needed, along with scoops to dish it out and a cooler to keep the ice cream cold for serving.
