Kiwanis Splash Pad Opening Day

Our Club had another successful Opening Day at the Splash Pad on Friday, June 6, 2025.

It was a day for kids and their families to enjoy the Splash Pad. With club-sponsored free admission, kids and their parents came rushing in for free pizza and ice cream. The smiles on the kids' faces remain priceless. We estimate that we gave away 450 servings of pizza and ice cream. We are again very thankful to Jackson Little Caesar's Pizza and Cascades Ice cream for their generosity in providing the Pizza and Ice Cream. And the County Parks Department continues to provide us with much-appreciated labor and support to make the event go smoothly.

Many thanks to the 22 club members who came out and worked the event. It was our ninth year of sponsoring this event.

Aktion Club Bowl-A-Thon

The Aktion Club held its Annual Bowl-A-Thon, and it was another successful event. A big thank you to Mary and Julie. They were able to give 4 bed kits to Sleeping Children Around the World. The Jackson club was joined by the Lansing Peckham Aktion club. Thank you to the Kiwanis members who donated to this fun event.

Aktion Club End of the Year Picnic

Western High School Youth in Government

Western High School Youth in Government students went to Lansing to visit the House/Senate and the Governor to see how government works, thanks to our Club's donation. They wrote and passed a bill, sat in the House and Senate chambers, argued court cases, and much more, working from 8 am to 10 pm.
