Each club in good standing shall be entitled to representation by no more than three (3) delegates. District Bylaws state that two of these delegates should be your President and President-Elect. An alternate should be chosen for each delegate. There shall be no voting by proxy. Delegates are required to register for the convention. Proof of registration will be required for the issuance of delegate credentials.

A Past Lt. Governor for your division may serve as one of your three (3) club delegates at the District Convention. In lieu of a club member serving as a delegate, please use the following space if you wish a Past Lieutenant Governor to serve as a delegate:

Name

_____
Year served as Lt. Governor

A duplicate copy of this form should be given to each delegate and alternate to carry to the convention. This will aid in the process of issuing credentials.
