ONTARO AUTO INSURANCE CHANGES

This week's Kiwanis meeting is one you'll truly want to be part of. Ontario's recent changes to auto insurance affect every driver, family, and business in our community — and today we have the chance to get ahead of the curve.

By joining us and this week's speakers Nicole Deluca & Ken McNaughton, you'll gain clear, practical insights into what's changing, why it matters, and how these updates have impacted you. Knowledge like this helps us make more informed decisions about our coverage.

Let's come together with curiosity and purpose. Your presence makes our conversations richer, our understanding stronger, and our club better.

Celebrating Our August Club Anniversaries! 🎉

Congratulations to Ken McNaughton on 32 years of outstanding service. Ken's dedication, leadership, and commitment to community have strengthened our club and inspired us all.

Thank you for everything you do. Here's to celebrating your accomplishments and many more milestones ahead! 🎉

KIWANIS EDUCATION

Why the Kiwanis Year Begins in October

Ever wonder why the Kiwanis administrative year starts on October 1? It's more than tradition — it's a structure built to keep every club around the world aligned and moving forward together.

Kiwanis International established October 1 as the official start of the leadership and administrative year so that officer terms, dues cycles, insurance billing, and club reporting all reset at the same time. This unified date ensures smooth transitions, consistent financial planning, and a coordinated beginning for new goals and service initiatives.

For clubs, October marks a fresh start: new officers step into their roles, committees reorganize, and members look ahead to another year of meaningful service. It's a moment of renewal that keeps Kiwanis strong, connected, and ready to serve.
