WEST BLOOMFIELD KIWANIS

West Bloomfield, Michigan

an international service club founded in 1915 at Detroit, Michigan

Darwin E. Heisler

For his many years of devoted service to Kiwanis, and his community, we the Board of Directors of the Kiwanis Club of West Bloomfield, at its July 3, 1986 Board meeting unanimously voted to present Darwin E. Heisler with the Distinguished Kiwanian Award.

Darwin's untiring service to Kiwanis spans 26 years, starting in 1960, of which he has had 21 years of perfect attendance. During each of those years, Darwin has taken on many leadership roles, from Secretary to President, to Lieutenant Governor, along with the chairmanship of several committees.

The following are some of the leadership roles he has held along with some of his accomplishments:

Distinguished Lt. Governor 1977-1978
Distinguished President 1974-1975
Secretary Kiwanis Club of Beverly, Mass. 1963-1965
Golden Service Award from Beverly Club 1965
President Kiwanis Council of Southeast Michigan 1978-1979
Trustee Kiwanis of Michigan Foundation 1982-1985, Re-elected 1985
Chairman Vocational Committee 1965-1966
Chairman Boy & Girls Committee 1960-1962
Chairman Kiwanis Day for the Handicapped 1976-1977; 1978-1979
Chairman Special projects committee 1983-1986
Delegate 12 District Conventions; 6 International Conventions
Organized Madison H.S. Key Club 1966, West Bloomfield Kiwanis Club, 1981

His record and accomplishments speak for themselves.

Darwin and Margaret have been married for 29 years and have one son and one daughter and one granddaughter.

Darwin is our first choice as Mr. Kiwanis in the Michigan District, and the Kiwanis Club of West Bloomfield proudly salutes Darwin E. Heisler as one of their distinguished Kiwanians.
