NORIS A. LUSCHE

PRESIDENT, KIWANIS INTERNATIONAL
1989 - 1990

Noris A. Lusche was the unanimous choice of the delegates to the 74th annual Kiwanis International Convention in Orlando, Florida, on June 28, 1989 when he was elected President, to lead this great organization into the 1990s. The Lusche's, Noris and Jean, hail from Lakewood, Colorado. Lusche is a retired banker, a 25-year Kiwanian, and a member of the South Denver club.

He was first elected to the International Board in 1982 as a trustee and has subsequently served as vice president, treasurer and president-elect. Noris succeeds Gene R. Overholt of the Michigan District in this highest office of Kiwanis.

Like those before him, Lusche has served the many offices of his club, division and district, always making a positive impression on those who served along with him. A man who loves the personal rejuvenation to be found in the rugged outdoors of Colorado, President Noris cherishes the rare moments alone when he can reflect on his impressions of the mountains. He would say, " I would turn my gaze from the plains before me to the thrusting peaks at my back... and they fill my whole field of vision! " And to his Governors, " All of you stand today in the foothills of your Kiwanis achievements. You must turn your attention to the imposing peaks called 1989-90. "

On the eve of the 75th birthday of Kiwanis, the Michigan District is pleased to present Noris a plaque that signifies the placing of his name in the "Distinguished Kiwanian" book. A gift of $500 has been made to the Kiwanis of Michigan Foundation, to be placed in a trust fund with the annual interest applied to the good works of the Foundation, serving hospitalized youth in the referral hospitals we serve.
